

GERMANY MUST FULFILL OBLIGATIONS

PREMIER POINCARE ISSUES ULTIMATUM IN SPEECH THURSDAY

Says That She Must Expect No Leniency from France—Was Given Great Ovation by Deputies—Communists Charge Poincare With Being Responsible for World War

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Raymond Poincare, president of the republic during the war and now premier of France, with the French chamber practically unanimous behind him, served notice on Germany today that so long as he held office in conducting the destinies of his country Germany must fulfill the obligations she entered upon at Versailles and may expect no leniency.

"The Versailles treaty binds us to our allies," he said, "but it binds Germany to us all. It must be carried out."

These were his final words before leaving the tribune, after replying to various interpellations. His pronouncement summed up the whole program.

RATES NOT BE LOWER THAN IN LIBERTY LOANS

This is Decision of Republican Conference

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senate Republicans in party conference reported today that the allied debt refunding bill with the addition of a provision that the interest rate on the refunded bonds should not be less than that fixed in the Liberty loan acts authorizing the loans to the allied nations. This rate is 4 1/2 per cent of the debt nations now held by rate stipulated in the obligations of the debt nations now held by the treasury.

This was the only change in the bill as reported by the finance committee and which the conference approved. It was announced that the vote on the added provision was 22 to 8 and was taken after the conference had voted down 24 to 14, an amendment by Senator Smoot of Utah, that the commission which is to conduct the refunding negotiations should not have the right to fix a rate of interest at less than 5 per cent.

Forty leaders said it was the plan to take the bill up in the senate on Monday and to press for passage.

The Republicans already have voted to take up a soldier bonus bill as soon as the refunding measure is disposed of. It was said there would be further party conferences to determine a policy as to the method of raising the necessary funds to finance the bonus.

ILLINOIS STANDS SECOND IN HARD ROAD BUILDING

Pennsylvania Was Only State That Exceeded It in Mileage

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—An experimental road which will "eliminate the guess work" in road building was described by Clifford Older, chief highway engineer of Illinois before the American Road Builders' association. The road is located near Springfield, Ill., is two miles long and known as the Bates experimental road.

Illinois, Mr. Older said, has attained a leading place as a road builder and in scientific design and construction. Pennsylvania led with 670 miles of high type pavement construction in 1921, he said, with Illinois second with 412 miles. For 1922, Illinois aims at 1,000 miles of paved roads ready for traffic, Mr. Older said.

Mr. Older explained the experimental work he had carried on, as a result of which he declared the drains were practically useless. He also investigated the action of pavement due to weather and temperature and said that in consequence designs had been made of double the strength and at a saving in cost of $1,500 a mile.

TOO MUCH MUSIC IN AIR FOR RADIOPHONES

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The old song "There Is Music in the Air," has not only become a reality but there is now too much "music in the air" according to L. R. Schmilt, radio inspector.

Thousands of persons who obtain their music by the radio route have complained Mr. Schmilt said, that the ether is flooded with electrical intermezzi, cantata concerts and orchestra numbers not to mention speeches, lectures and messages sent out by amateurs.

According to Mr. Schmilt, amateurs are required to tune their instruments to 350 meter wave lengths. Many are not doing so and as a result radiophones are receiving the waves.

ADMITS MURDER OF KNOXVILLE POLICEMAN.

SENATOR, Miss. Jan. 19.—A man who gave his name as John Henry Lyle under arrest here has admitted, officers declare, that he is wanted in Knoxville, Illinois, in connection with the killing of a police officer last May.

WESTERN UNION OFFICIAL FOUND DEAD.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Jan. 19.—E. C. McClintock of Denver, district commercial superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph company was found dead in his room at a hotel here today. He came here from Denver January 4, because of ill health. He was 54 years old.

SHOULD REDUCE FREIGHT RATES ON COAL FIRST

This is Opinion of Coal Association Officer

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Claims of the coal industry for decreased railroad rates were presented to the interstate commerce commission today in the investigation which it is making into the general level of transportation rates. J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal association, declared his organization would not attempt to say what railroad earnings would stand in the way of freight reductions but asserted that if any were granted they should be accorded to coal first and to the largest degree.

Mr. Morrow estimated that rates on coal had increased as much as 200 per cent since 1914 and that the present average cost of transporting a ton from the mines to the consumer was $2.74, while the price of the product itself at the mine was $2.14.

George H. Cushing for the American Wholesale Coal association declared that railroad earnings would be sufficient to allow sharp reductions in the rates on coal with the resumption of normal traffic.

He fixed the measure of the reasonable rate as not more than fifty per cent in excess of April, 1917, charges.

E. L. Kelly, for the state of South Dakota discussed the various increases granted on coal during the four years to date, as compared with the drop in price of agricultural products and said that the charges now were excessive and unreasonable, not justified by existing conditions.

REACH AGREEMENT ON EVICTION OF VIRGINIA MINERS

Proceedings Stayed Pending Investigation of Conditions

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Agreement was reached at meeting today between Secretary Davis of the labor department and coal mine operators of the New River field of West Virginia that eviction proceedings intensified against miners' families who are occupying company houses, although no longer on the payrolls, would be stayed pending an investigation of labor conditions in the field.

The operators who were represented at the meeting by President Cross of the New River Coal Company; President Caperton of the Mine Operators' Association and T. L. Lewis, secretary of the same organization it was said entered emphatic denials of charges which representatives of the mine workers have made to officials concerning labor conditions in their territory and asked an investigation.

Governor Morgan of West Virginia also furnished Mr. Davis with a report on the situation and the latter in a statement said the investigation had been ordered.

Two bills were introduced in the house today on the situation.

TO SUPPORT ONLY MEN PLEDGED TO ENFORCE THE LAW

Drys Plan to Organize Two Hundred Thousand Voters

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Two hundred thousand men and women throughout Illinois will be organized to support only such candidates for public office as will pledge themselves to strict enforcement of the state and national prohibition laws Alderman John Lyle, dry leader of the Chicago city council announced today. Alderman Lyle's statement followed the announcement a few days ago by Alderman Anton Cermack, "wet" leader in the council, that plans were under way to place on the congressional ballot next fall the light wine and beer question.

Alderman Lyle indicated that his organization would make no attempt to prevent the wine and beer proposal from being placed on the ballot but will confine itself entirely to electing candidates pledged to support the prohibition laws.

MAYOR THOMPSON MAKES PROMISE TO DELEGATION

Crime Commissioner Will Probe Non Law Enforcement

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Mayor William Hale Thompson today announced to a delegation of ministers and representatives of law enforcement agencies calling at his office that he expected to appoint a crime commissioner to investigate all complaints of non-enforcement of the law.

The mayor also announced that the 30,000 municipal employees must obey the laws and that the new official will investigate charges of incompetency or dishonesty against public employees. Another duty of the law enforcement officer will be to furnish evidence to be used in closing all places where vice exists the mayor said.

Some city hall officers tonight professed to see in the mayor's announcement an outgrowth of the controversy between Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris and Robert E. Crowe state's attorney, regarding enforcement of the laws in Chicago.

WOULD BE WRONG TO REDUCE WAGES SECRETARY SAYS

Great Pressure Brought to Bear on Officials for Reduction

(By The Associated Press)

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 19.—It would be an economic wrong and inhuman to reduce the wages of the mine workers of the country below a living wage declared William Green, secretary-treasurer of the international organization of the International Mine Workers to the delegates in the anthracite wage conference today. He said tremendous pressure has been brought to bear on the national officers of the union for a voluntary reduction in wages but never will the consent of the national organization be given during the life of present contracts to a reduction of wages below the standard of living.

Mr. Green spoke at the afternoon session his address following one at the morning session by Philip Murray, international vice-president who told the hard coal diggers that the theory that lower wages would bring about steadier work in the mining regions of the country was false.

The convention did not reach the wage question but acted on a number of resolutions reported from the resolutions committee. The only one that caused a division provided that congress be urged to modify the Volstead act so as to permit the manufacture of beer. The resolution was however adopted.

The convention went on record in opposition to the Keweenaw bill in congress. A resolution adopted stated that the miners were not opposed to an investigation of mining conditions but was against any law that restricted the right to strike or provided for compulsory arbitration.

WEALTHY MAN HELD FOR MURDER

(By The Associated Press)

DECORAH, Iowa, Jan. 19.—Frank Kneeskern, wealthy young stock buyer of Castalia was bound over to the grand jury today on a charge of murder under bonds of $25,000 following a secret preliminary hearing before Mayor Conover lasting two weeks.

He is charged with killing Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vanbroeklin, who was found December 11 in their farm home near Decorah, their bodiesiddled with shot from a shot gun.

BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press)

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Jan. 19.—T. J. Phillips, 81, four times mayor, democratic gubernatorial candidate for governor in 1904 and veteran coal operator, died last night after a long illness. He was born in Wales. His mining interests were in this state and in the heart of the Illinois district.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 19.—Lyle Rossman, 20, former high school student, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the heart.

He was found in his father's bedroom by two young brothers. Despondency caused by ill-health, coupled with grief at the loss of his mother a few months ago, is believed to have been reason for his act.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Contracts for the construction of 127 passenger, baggage and dining cars at a cost of $3,000,000 have been let by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, it was announced today. All of the cars will be steel and embody the latest improvements, the Burlington said.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Julia Revere, a former negro slave, whose birth 117 years ago, is said to be attested by competent records, died here this morning, at her home.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—An appropriation of $500,000 for the relief of unemployed coal miners and their families in Kentucky, West Virginia, Alabama, Ohio and Pennsylvania is proposed in a bill proposed today by Representative Thomas, democrat, of Kentucky. Destitution and suffering exists in the mining districts according to Mr. Thomas.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Jan. 19.—Seventy-five men will be laid off at the Burlington shops, effective tomorrow evening, the reduction being made necessary on account of a falling off in business. With the exception of the car repair yards force, practically all shop craft will be affected.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—A rehearing of the application of the Smith Bus Line, Inc., for permission to operate between Taylorville, Aurora, Elgin and Big Rock in Kane county, Chicago and Fulton in Whiteside county, was ordered today by the Illinois Commerce commission. The date will be set later.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Operation of a motor bus service out of West Frankfort, by Ellis and Everett Shires, was ordered discontinued by the Illinois Commerce commission today, until certificate of necessity and convenience is obtained.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Authority was given the Southern Illinois Light & Power company, to issue $491,080 first lien mortgage bonds and to sell $1,200,000 refunding mortgage at a 7 percent bond; $311,700 six percent cumulative preferred stock and $960,000 first mortgage gold bonds, also of six percent by the Illinois Commerce commission today.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Increased electricity rates in Glen Ellyn, Wheaton, Aurora, Montgomery, Oswego and North Aurora, were permanently denied the Western United Gas & Electric company by the Illinois Commerce commission today.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Grace Pearl, 24 years old, negro, arraigned in court for killing her husband, told Judge Samuel Trude: "It didn't hurt him, because, I shot him while he was asleep." Her case was continued until January 31.

CARBONDALE, Ill., Jan. 19.—Ora Tucker, a pumper, was suffocated when fire of undetermined origin broke out in the Ward coal mine, 6 miles from here, early today. The fire originated about 1,500 feet west of the main shaft and Tucker was the only person in the mine at the time. His body was recovered by a rescue team from Duplin. Sections of the mine will be sealed in an effort to smother the flames. The property loss has not been determined.

COURT ORDER IS MODIFIED.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Federal Judge Martin J. Wade, today modified a federal court order restraining striking packing house employees from unlawful practices but refused to dissolve the order as had been asked by the strikers. In the original order the strikers were restrained from interfering with or inducing employees to quit work Judge Wade held that this was not an unlawful practice and it was stricken from the order.

The modified order follows closely the recent decision of the United States supreme court in regard to picketing Judge Wade said.

WITNESS SAYS HE SAW SOLDIER SHOT BY FIRING SQUAD

Occurred Near Chateau Thierry in July, 1918

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—George Washington Yarbrough, a high school teacher of Roanoke, Ala., told a senate investigating committee today that he had witnessed the shooting of an American soldier by a firing squad near the Chateau Thierry region in July, 1918.

The witness said he was close enough when the officer, commanding the squad, gave the order to fire to hear the soldier barely 20 years old, plead to be permitted to die with his eyes unbound.

There had been camp reports the witness said, that the soldier was shot for neglect of duty in battle. Asked by Chairman Brandegee if the shooting led him to believe there had been abuse of power, Yarbrough replied:

"Nothing whatever."

As he assumed that the officer handling the squad was carrying out orders. But he thought then and now, he added, that if the army had detailed a squad to shoot a comrade it might have detailed another squad to pick up the body and bury it.

Much testimony relating to alleged abuse of enlisted men cropped out again today along with further references to the conduct of "Hard Boiled" Smith. Two former service men testified they had seen three public executions at Is-Sur-Tille, with which station war department records show only two men were hanged.

The hearing was adjourned until next Wednesday.

INTRODUCE BILL TO MAKE PORTO RICO FREE STATE

Bill Sponsored by Unionist Party in Porto Rico Has Good Backing

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—A bill to create a free state of Porto Rico with a complete autonomous government under which a governor and other administrative officers would be elected by the legislature was introduced in the house today by Chairman Campbell of the rules committee. The bill sponsored by the Unionist Party in Porto Rico is declared by a commission sent here by unionists to have a strong backing.

It would be effective immediately upon its being signed by the president.

Under provisions of the bill introduced today the governor would be elected by the legislature and he in turn would name with the advice and consent of the senate, the entire supreme court and heads of various administrative departments. Provision also is made for two resident commissioners in Washington instead of one as now; a public service commissioner, and a United States resident commissioner in the islands to be named by the official representative of the president there.

Provision is made in the bill for extension of the time in which residents of the islands might avail themselves of American citizenship, such time having already expired under the Jones act. There are said to be about 15,000 residents of the islands who now are not citizens of any country.

Should the bill be enacted before the term of Governor Kelly expires the election by the legislature of a governor, it is said, would automatically end his tenure.

FOURTH ARREST IN BIG MAIL ROBBERY

New York, Jan. 19.—A fourth arrest in the hunt for those guilty of the $1,500,000 mail theft of July 8, 1921, which occurred between the New York post office and Washington, came today when inspectors and police nabbed Mark Von Eschen of the Bronx, who they said had $29,700 of the stolen bonds in his possession.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Abe Atell, former wife of the puglist and two men, Harry Cohen and Sol Goh, were arrested in connection with the case.

This was announced tonight by the dominion department of agriculture which stated that all hogs marketed at public stock yards or slaughterhouses will be sold according to official grades.

CANADA WILL GRADE ITS PORK

(By The Associated Press)

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 19.—Pork for public consumption will be graded by the dominion government after May 1, 1922.

This was announced tonight by the dominion department of agriculture which stated that all hogs marketed at public stock yards or slaughterhouses will be sold according to official grades.

BIG FIRE AT HANNIBAL THURSDAY

Hannibal, Mo., Jan. 19.—Fire of undetermined origin tonight seriously damaged the stock and store of the Tom Elven Clothing Co. The total loss is estimated at $41,000.

SECRETARY HOOVER ISSUES WARNING OF IMPENDING STRIKE

Says That Public Should Know What to Expect When Agreements Expire April 1—Stage Appears to be All Set for the Strike—Coal Operators Announce Reduction

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Warning of an impending general strike in the country's coal industry was given today by Secretary Hoover who declared that the public should know what to expect when the national agreements covering wages and working conditions of miners expire April 1.

"The stage," he said, "appears to be set for a strike in the bituminous coal fields about the last of March."

Mr. Hoover did not indicate what the government's plans for meeting such an emergency were.

While he did not discuss what the government's attitude might be in the event of a general coal strike, the impression was gained that the administration was regarding without undue alarm the possible approach of such a strike situation.

As the time has approached for the construction of new wage scales and working contracts between the miners and employers in the union fields, negotiations have twice been set on foot between the mine workers and the employers with Mr. Hoover as the representative of the government taking a tentative part.

Operators in the union fields, declaring that nonunion coal producing territory has been taking an increasing proportion of the business have announced their purpose of reducing wages when the contract expires, while John L. Lewis, as president of the United Mine Workers has in speeches before union gatherings and statements asserted that the men could accept no reductions but would seek increases.

Ordinarily wage reductions in the bituminous industry have begun between an organization of operators in what is known as the central competitive field, including Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois and the union.

The agreement reached in this area has been the basis of similar arguments in all the union outlying districts.

DELEGATES TAKE STEPS TO GIVE AID TO CHINESE

Adopt Two Resolutions at Thursday's Session

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Two resolutions to aid development of Chinese railways and a proposal to turn the light of publicity on all international commitments affecting China's interests were approved by the arms delegates today at the same time that their experts were bringing the naval treaty one step nearer completion.

The railroad resolutions adopted in the far eastern committee pledge the powers and China against discriminatory practices on the Chinese roads and express a sentiment favoring ultimate unification of these roads under Chinese control. During the day drafting experts completed the final text of the five power naval treaty except for the Pacific fortifications article and there were indications that an agreement on that subject was nearer.

In the latest revision of the treaty each power is permitted to have two 35,000 ton airplane carriers, despite the previous limitation of carriers to 27,000 tons each, and at least one capital ship in the list of abandoned vessels can be attained by each power and converted into a guard or school ship.

Provision also is made in the final draft for termination of the treaty as regards all the signatories whenever after the initial fifteen year period any one of the five powers gives notice of its desire to withdraw.

Progress also was made today by the Japanese and Chinese in their separate negotiations over Shanghai agreements, being reached for return to China of cable and wireless facilities in Kiaochow leased territory.

BURGLARS HAD UNIQUE METHODS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—William Spiggle and Harry Berger, arrested today, pointed with pride to their unusual methods in burglary which they told detectives had enabled them to make twenty successful hauls.

William carried in his pocket a revolver and police reserve badges. Harry concealed about him the tools necessary for house breaking if discovered in their operation. William flashed his badge for the identification of the burglar "arrested" Harry and led him to safety.

Three weeks ago Mrs. Abe Atell, former wife of the puglist and two men, Harry Cohen and Sol Goh, were arrested in connection with the case.

This was announced tonight by the dominion department of agriculture which stated that all hogs marketed at public stock yards or slaughterhouses will be sold according to official grades.

If a thoroughly modern house of seven rooms can be built in Jacksonville for $6,000 the prices of materials or of labor must have been reduced.

It really doesn't make much difference whether it was Senator Mills or Senator Wheeler who introduced the law providing for the establishment of state hospitals for ex-service men in Illinois. The measure had executive approval and the ready support of the general assembly and one of the needed institutions is to be built in Jacksonville.
The two important facts locally considered are that the need is to be met and that one of the buildings is to be erected here.

The records presented at the annual meeting of the trustees of Passavant hospital last night showed the growing usefulness of that institution. The daily average number of patients cared for the past year was 41.6 while five years ago the number was 31 and 30 years ago 23.3. These figures prove a very substantial increase in the service of the hospital within a decade. The hospital can properly be classed as one of the large assets of Jacksonville.

No doubt the hard coal miners who are insisting that there must be an increase in the mining rate when their present contract expires are endeavoring to get ready to compromise on the present scale. The wages paid now are too high by comparison with wages for other lines of work, but there is no denying the miners' argument that something must be done to afford them steeper employment. A high wage scale doesn't amount to a great deal to a miner if he only has work a day or two a week.

Jacksonville colleges, like some other similar institutions, today have no need for the field secretaries who go about seeking new students. Now the problem is not to get more students but to take care of the voluntary applicants who come. The problem of the local colleges is to provide more space and equipment so that a greater number of students can be accommodated.

The advertisements of the Chamber of Commerce for girls and women willing to work in factories have not met with very large response. It is a guess that if the inquiry for men workers that the number of applications would be increased many times. Jacksonville needs factories but the greatest demand is for employment for men. When a factory of this kind comes to the city it will bring in new families and automatically provide both men and women workers.

A PLAN THAT KEEPS YOUR HEAD CLEAR.

Here's a very childish plan that works—a plan that keeps your head clear during this readjustment. Merely make up your mind that all the big fundamentals are right and that nothing else matters. Personally I have turned my proxy over to the all-wise—I haven't sense enough to vote these current issues anyhow.

Get one thing clearly in mind, namely, that nothing is happening by chance. Nothing, taking place now, is accidental. Somewhere there is a Big Scheme and a Plan. Somebody comprehends all this and is working it out. Somewhere there is a Head older than time who knows His business.

You have no idea how coming to this simple conclusion straightens everything out. Try it and feel your blood pressure go down.—Homer McKee in Forbes Magazine.

WORKING OUT DETAILS FOR LOCAL FACTORY

Machinery Purchased for Rothchild Clothing Establishment to be Located Here—Mr. Renner Will Have Charge of Plant.

Albert Renner returned last night from Chicago where he has been for several days in conference with Felix Rothchild of the Rothchild Clothing Co. with reference to the establishment of the company's factory here. Mr. Renner will be in charge of the factory and directly interested in its operation. The Jacksonville man took with him a lease for the cigar factory building at the corner of West and North streets, owned by Fletcher Hopper and Harry Hofmann. The owners have agreed to make certain repairs that are necessary before the building can be used for clothing manufacturing purposes.

Further the Chamber of Commerce has agreed to pay the first six months rental and in other ways has aided in having Mr. Rothchild select this city for his factory site.

Mr. Rothchild guarantees a payroll of $1,000 a week and has indicated that there are abundant reasons for expecting this sum to be more than doubled. He gave Jacksonville people the impression of being a conservative business man, somewhat chary about making promises and with an anxiety to have the factory operated on a larger basis than he actually promises.

While Mr. Renner was in Chicago machinery was purchased and early shipment will be made to Jacksonville. The expectation is that the factory can be in active operation early in February. The wages paid will be from $8 to $20 a week and about half the employees will be men.

FINED FOR TRANSPORTING LIQUOR

Clark Taylor appeared before the court and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of transporting liquor. Taylor is the car driver who had the misfortune to run into the curb near the postoffice building, disabling his car. It was as a result of this accident that the police examined his car and found a quantity of liquor hidden beneath the cushion. Taylor admitted that he was transporting the liquor from Springfield to Bluffs.

OGAR CIGAR FACTORY MOVES

The Ogar cigar factory which has been located in the Hopper & Hofmann building at the corner of North West and West North streets, has been moved to 2313 West Morgan street.

The removal was made necessary because of the building being wanted for factory purposes. The new location is over the Ward Book bindery and gives the company most desirable quarters.

BEREA LADIES AID MEETS AT PRENTICE

Mrs. Clyde Lewis is Hostess at all Day Meeting of Aid Society Thursday.

Members of the Berea Ladies Aid society held an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Clyde Lewis in Prentice. It was the regular monthly meeting of the society and was largely attended, about forty being present. At noon a fine dinner was served and in the afternoon a business session was held.

Mrs. Charles Swain, the president, presided and the devotionals were led by Mrs. Walter Robertson. A number of business matters were considered, including plans for an oyster supper which is to be given on Saturday, Feb. 4, at the home of Mrs. Harrison Robinson. This will take the place of the regular meeting, in the early part of February.

RIDGELEY WILL HAVE INITIATION

Class of Sixteen to be Given Work Tonight—Grand Officers Expected to be Present.

Members of Ridgeley Encampment No. 9 are planning a big time tonight when sixteen candidates will be given the degrees of the order in Odd Fellows hall, West State street.

The candidates come from Jacksonville and many surrounding towns in the county. The encampment team is in fine shape and the work will be conferred in an impressive manner.

Grand officers of the order from Springfield are expected to be present for the initiation. Past Grand Patriarch Horn and Grand Junior Warden Weber are among those expected to be present.

Following the work there will be an informal social time and a banquet at which time a number of addresses will be made by the grand officers and members of the local encampment.

The committee on arrangements and banquet is composed of Charles Goodey, Charles Whitman and Hiram Johnson.

ILLINOIS HAS TOUGH FOE IN MONMOUTH

Visitors Have One of Strongest Teams in the State—Were Runners-up in State Championship Last Year.

Illinois College meets Monmouth tonight at 8 o'clock on the David Prince floor in what promises to be a fast game of basketball. This is the first appearance of the Monmouth College basketball team on the local floor in a long period of years. Illinois and Monmouth have mixed in football during the past three seasons and tonight's game marks a resumption in basketball relations which were interrupted by war conditions.

The coming of the Monmouth team is in keeping with Coach Harmon's plan to bring a better class of teams to Jacksonville for the benefit of the fans. Monmouth, it will be recalled, was last year the runnerup in the big intercollegiate basketball tournament which decided the state championship. Of last year's tournament there are four men remaining to play this season and with a year's experience behind them they should be even better than they were last year.

Tom and Lev Wallace, brothers, are main cogs in the visiting machine. The former plays a wonderful game at guard and the latter is a clever forward. L. Wallace is a big, husky man who makes a specialty of close in shots. He has so much advantage on account of his size that most guards find it a difficult job to keep him from rolling field goals into the basket. Wallace has a capable running mate at the other forward in Smiley who has a keen eye for field goals. In the Carthage game, which Monmouth won handily by the score of 21 to 9, Smiley scored 19 of the points made by his team. In addition to playing a finished floor game he is a consistent scorer by the free score route. In the game with Coe College, Iowa, Wallace scored seven field goals from his forward position, and contributed 14 of the 28 points made by Monmouth while Coe was struggling to count 19. Bear at center is a sure enough bear. The contest between Bear and Capt. Mellon at the pivot position tonight will be full of action. Tom Wallace and Mann will give the Illinois forwards plenty of trouble in getting loose for shots at the goal.

Each day of practice this week has seemed to indicate a steady improvement in the play of the Illinois College team. With five games already placed on the winning side of the record the Blue and White players are up on their toes to continue their winning streak and keep the slate clean of defeats.

W. H. Brazelton of Bloomington will referee the contest. The probable line-ups of the two teams to start the game are as follows:

Illinois—Antrobus, f; Frazer, f; Mellon, c; Cully, g; Burrus, g; Monmouth—L. Wallace, f; Smiley, f; Bear, c; T. Wallace, g; Mann, g.

INSURANCE AGENT IS IN TROUBLE

Cloverleaf Agent Arrested on Embezzlement Charge—May Also Face Another Serious Charge.

Cyrus Young, an agent for the Cloverleaf Insurance company, was apprehended at Centerville, Ill., from advice of the insurance company and returned to Jacksonville yesterday by Deputy Sheriff John Roach.

Young is charged with embezzling funds belonging to the Cloverleaf company.

Authorities say it is possible that a more serious charge may be filed against him. Young recently went to Chicago and it is alleged, was accompanied by a Jacksonville girl. After their arrival in Chicago it is also alleged the girl notified her parents who live here, that she and Young were married in that city.

A woman alleging to be the wife of Young has arrived in Jacksonville and is accompanied by a three-year-old child whom she claims belongs to Young.

The woman states that Young informed her he was working out of Jacksonville. She had become suspicious of him and her trip to the city was to make an investigation.

A full investigation of the matter is being made and if it is found that the allegations are true Cyrus Young may find serious difficulty in making the necessary explanations to all concerned. In the meantime he will be the guest of Sheriff Weatherford for a period.

Young has not been long with the Cloverleaf company and little is known regarding him. He is thirty years old.

Purina Calf Chow

Purina Cow Chow

Both lead to More Milk

PUT your whole herd on the balanced Purina System. It is just as important to save milk as it is to make milk. Purina does both. Cow Chow supplies cows with protein, calcium and every nutrient in which ordinary rations are short. Calf Chow gives calves a perfectly balanced growing ration, that cuts the cost and saves milk.

Make home-feeds bring more profits

You don't need to quit using home-grown feeds. The Purina System supplies what they lack and shows how to use them to get better results. And Purina is certainly getting results all over this part of the country. Are you a Purina feeder?

THE HIGH COST OF GOVERNMENT.

(The Breeder's Gazette.)

Next in importance to complete deflation of war wages in all lines of industry and deflation of railway freights comes deflation of public expenditures. For the last twenty years there has been a perfect mania for creating new offices, new boards, new commissions, new bureaus, until we see today the hand of government—and in this country that means usually the hand of the professional politician—in nearly everybody's business and everybody's pocket to an extent that seriously depresses new enterprise and stifles individual initiative.

An amusing and of course overdrawn picture of the situation as it affects even purely agricultural districts appears in a copy of a typical county weekly newspaper published in Kansas—the Paola Spirit for Dec. 23. It follows:

"Fate seems to have made the year of 1921 extravagant in its trials, sieges, besetments, demands, commands, taxation, robberies, bankruptcies, thefts, diptheria, smallpox, etc. The average home has been overrun with soldiers, beggars, government officers, state officials, inquisitors, promoters, peddlers, and busybodies. A special car of the state health board, in charge of a richly gowned and jeweled young woman, came to town not long ago, and mothers were commanded to hurry to the depot and take instructions as to how to raise their babies; then came a government nurse, another unmarried lady, weighing the babies and instructing the mothers the sort of infants they must give birth to hereafter or quit the business; and now farmers are notified that they must pay a specialist from one of our higher institutions of learning to tell them how to feed the hogs."

"Sate to say there are in Miami county today 500 officials, national, state, county, township, city, and district, telling the people what they must do and what they can't do; spying into their homes, their private accounts, their methods of life, laying down the law as to what they shall eat, drink, wear, buy, or spend; where they shall go and when; to bare their arms for vaccination, show the baby's back, recount all family diseases, tell the inspecting nurse where you sleep and why married or way sinkie; show up your bank account, your debts, your toothbrush, and a record of the number of days your child has attended school the last month."

"Upstanding and outstanding the average men, women, and children are exploited, restrained, assessed, directed, advised, prohibited, mulcted, admonished, damned, threatened, examined, criticized, prayed for and prayed upon, until they are about ready to do as the masses did in England seven hundred years ago—run into caves and rudely chalk on the outer walls, 'No money; no religion.'"

Seriously, have we not been overdoing this government intervention in private business?

Committee Will Decide on Reward Divide in Forgery Case—Will Aid Mercedosa Bridge Project—Labor Survey Proceeds Slowly.

Chamber of Commerce directors held a regular weekly meeting last night with President R. Y. Rowe presiding. Secretary Welch brought a number of matters before the directors for their consideration. The question of payment of the $100 reward offered in the check forgery case was referred to a committee with the suggestion that a written statement be secured from each applicant for the reward. The directors are ready to pay the money but must be certain that the rights of all parties concerned are considered.

Recently the directors agreed to make an effort to have Jacksonville subscribe a fair proportion of the cost of making the bridge at Mercedosa available for general traffic. The committee on committees was last night asked to name a committee to cooperate with County Engineer Baldwin and the Mercedosa people in getting at the exact facts as to how much money will be needed from Jacksonville.

Report was made by Mr. Welch with reference to the Rothchild factory and it was stated that Mr. Renner has written several times

STILL PROBING MAIL ROBBERY

(By The Associated Press)

ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 19.—Federal and local authorities continued tonight their questioning of George E. Scruggs, who admitted to police today having taken part in the theft here yesterday of a mail bag. The authorities expressed the belief that Scruggs who said he threw the contents of the bag into the St. Joseph river here when he found there was no money in it, is withholding facts regarding disposition of the loot which was unofficially estimated to be worth $500,000.

Police dragged the river at the point indicated by Scruggs but failed to find any trace of the bag. Scruggs' statement to the police followed an alleged confession of Dan Ingram, a negro truck man to the robbery.

Ingram had Scruggs as an accomplice, and according to the police said Scruggs has been working on him several days to commit the theft.

Postal Inspector George F. Uloh said tonight charges of conspiracy to rob the mails would probably be filed against the men tomorrow. Inspector Uloh said he did not know what the stolen pouch contained but that a list of its contents was being prepared in New York from which point the bag was shipped.

ADD RECOMMEND

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The Illinois State Board of Highway Advertisers at a meeting here today adopted a resolution recommending to Governor Len Small and the state department of public works and buildings that immediate action be taken either to purchase cement and other road building materials in the open market or to acquire a state owned cement plant.

The action of the board followed the rejection on Tuesday of the bids of cement companies for approximately 4,000,000 barrels of cement at a total price of nearly $8,000,000. According to Col. C. R. Miller, director of the department of public works bids submitted to the state of Wisconsin were 7 1/2 cents a barrel cheaper than bids submitted to Illinois.

Mr. Miller said today that the state was ready to act on the board's recommendation and said the last general assembly gave the state the right to buy build or condemn a cement plant and appropriated $5,000,000 for that purpose.

NEGRO RUNS AMUCK IN POLICE SECTION.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A crazed negro, awaiting examination as to his sanity tonight shot and mortally wounded Patrolman Otto W. Motz here in a police station. Motz died less than an hour later. He had been shot with his own gun.

A second killing was averted when the gun misfired. Patrolman John Hagstrand was the second intended victim.

The negro, who later gave the name of Frank Whaley, was subdued after a terrific fight in which a half score of policemen beat him down.

After two hours examination Assistant District attorney Dineen Whaley was shaming insanity and was trying to "bluff his way thru," after a homicide charge had been placed against him.

DIRECT CABLES TO GERMANY

New York, Jan. 19.—Plans for the resumption of direct cable communication with Germany, suspended in 1914, were announced today by Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Commercial Cables-Postal Telegraph System.

Under a contract with the German Atlantic Cable company, Mr. Mackay said, two new cables would be laid between New York, and Emden, Germany, and would be put in operation by October, 1922.

The announcement stated that since the signing of the armistice all cable messages between the United States and Germany have passed either thru France or England. The plan has not proven satisfactory to American business interests, said Mr. Mackay.

W. AND J. FOOTBALL HONORED

WASHINGTON, Pa. Jan. 19.—A community celebration was held tonight in honor of the Washington and Jefferson University football squad which recently went to Pasadena and engaged in a scoreless tie game with the California eleven.

Many well known men in football and newspaper circles in the Tri-State district attended the affair in which the town's residents joined with the student body and University authorities to make it a notable one.

KANSAS COAL STRIKE IS ENDED

Pittsburgh, Kans., Jan. 19.—The strike in the Kansas coal field is ended. Van A. Bitner, representative of the International Union asserted in a statement today. Two hundred and twenty new miners were put to work in the Kansas coal fields today, a report from the operators' association said. More than six hundred new miners have gone to work this week, it was stated.

SIR JOSEPH COOK TO REPRESENT AUSTRALIA

TEXAS GRAND JURY INDICTS SHERIFF

WACO, Texas, Jan. 19.—The grand jury this afternoon indicted Sheriff Bob Buchanan in connection with the killing of Louis Crow at Lorens, October 1. Crow was stabbed during an attempt to stop a Ku Klux Klan parade and died four days later.

CRAIG TO CONFER WITH LLOYD GEORGE

Belfast, Jan. 19.—Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, left Belfast today for London where he will meet Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for the colonies tomorrow or Saturday to discuss outstanding questions concerning the government of the North of Ireland.

SEEK TO LESSEN TOTAL OF ACCIDENTS

Burlington Calls Attention to Many Happenings the Result of Law Violation.

Supt. G. L. Griggs of this division of the Burlington has sent a circular letter to representatives of the road warning against trespassing on the right of way. The thought behind the letter is to lessen the amount of train hopping in cities and towns and to otherwise bring about better observance of the law.

In the letter Supt. Griggs says: Following is the letter sent out by Superintendent Griggs:

"I would like to suggest that you tell school superintendents about an accident that happened a few days ago. One of the freight trains was pulling out of town when a 12 year old boy attempted to jump on one of the cars, fell and lost one of his legs under the wheels. It seems to be that this accident ought to be made known to school teachers and parents in towns along our lines, as showing the importance of doing everything possible to keep the children from playing around railroad tracks and yards.

"Last year there were 2,160 fatal accidents on the railroads of this country to persons classified by the Interstate Commerce Commission as trespassers. That is to say, this number of persons who had no business to be on railroad rights-of-way were killed while walking on the tracks or stealing rides on trains.

"Of the 2,160 trespassers killed, 456, or about 20 per cent were minors under 21 years of age. The fatalities occurring to these children trespassing happened as follows:

88 were crossing railroad rights-of-way.

135 were riding or jumping on or off of trains or cars.

125 were walking on the tracks.

88 particulars unknown.

"In addition to these children killed while trespassing, 688 were injured in the same manner, and in most cases the injuries were very serious, often resulting in the loss of a limb.

"If the graves of the children who were killed while walking on railroad tracks or stealing rides on trains for the last 10 years were placed in a line from New York to San Francisco, their grave stones could be used for mile posts for every mile of the way, and there would be enough left to mark with milestones a road from San Francisco to New Orleans.

"Every experienced railroad man knows that there are many chances of being struck by a train or falling between cars or getting thrown under them when getting on or off trains. These are the things which cause most of the fatal and serious accidents to railroad employees. If these dangerous accidents happen frequently to men who keenly realize the danger, how much greater is the danger to children who do not understand it.

"I hope you will interest as many school and parents as possible to use their influence toward keeping children away from railroad yards and trains.

SMALL PERCENTAGE OF DOCTORS SAY WHISKY NECESSARY

Fifty One Per Cent of Those Replying Favor It

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Whisky is a necessary therapeutic agent in the practice of medicine according to 51 percent of the 21,115 doctors who answered the questionnaire issued by the Journal of the American Medical Association. Forty-nine percent disagreed.

On the question of the medical value of beer and wine, there was not such a close division. Seventy-four percent of the physicians said beer was not necessary and 68 percent said wine had no value in their practice.

The Journal sent questionnaires to 53,960 physicians, of whom 53 percent replied.

Tabulated by states, the vote shows 20 states favoring the use of whisky and 29 states opposed to it while every state returned a negative vote on the beer and wine questions.

The doctors favoring the use of whisky are in the majority in the cities where 58 percent voted for the liquor. In the rural districts 54 percent voted against it. Tabulated by districts the North Atlantic and South Atlantic states favored whisky, while the North Central, South Central and Western states gave a majority against it.

Twenty-two percent of those replying, said they knew of instances in which "unnecessary suffering or death has resulted from the enforcement of prohibition, while 78 percent said no such instances had occurred in their practice.

New York city only 1.7 percent of the doctors favored more than 100 prescription blanks every three months. In Philadelphia an increase was favored by 1.4 percent, while Chicago and Detroit showed 3.6 percent voting for more blanks.

CLUBS AND SOCIETY

session a report was given of the recent bazaar held by the society. At the noon hour a delicious luncheon was served by a committee of which Mrs. Fred Lane was chairman and which included Mrs. Charles Hackett, Miss Tilia Goebel and Miss Bess Dunlap.

Westminster Ladies Enjoy Birthday Social Thursday.

The ladies of Westminster whose birthdays come in October, November, December and January were hostesses at a delightful party given yesterday afternoon at the church. A large number of ladies were present and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. A program was given in which musical numbers and reading were the features. Miss Catherine Barr sang a group of solos and Miss Velma Mathews of Illinois college gave a reading. Mrs. S. I. Davis spoke on the work of the kindergarten department. She is in charge of the kindergarten room where mothers may leave their little children during the church services and the project is proving very successful. Mrs. John T. Gunn was at the head of the program.

Attractive refreshments were served during the social hour following the program. Mrs. J. H. Rayhill was the chairman of the hostess committee and she was assisted by the following hostesses:

Mrs. Mary Cunningham, Mrs. W. C. Thompson, Mrs. Bland, Mrs. W. J. Brady, Mrs. Roy, Mrs. Emma Watkins, Mrs. Padgett, Mrs. L. E. Zachary, Mrs. John Ayers, Mrs. Spruit, Mrs. Harlan Williamson, Mrs. D. B. Clarke, Mrs. R. H. Stevenson, Mrs. Henry Kamm, Mrs. Lee Abbott, Mrs. W. C. Bradish, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Andrew Harris, Mrs. J. H. Rayhill, Mrs. C. M. Peirman, Mrs. James Bentley, Mrs. John Larson, Mrs. V. R. Riley, Mrs. Helen Ellis, Mrs. S. I. Davis, Miss Effie Race, Miss Catherine Barr, Miss Mary Tholen, Miss Margaret Tholen, Miss Ainslie Moore, Miss Ruth Waggoner and Miss Harriett Davis.

Japanese Tea Given At Potter Home.

A breath of old Japan gave a charming effect to the tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Homer Potter to the members of the Five Hundred club yesterday afternoon at her home on Grove street. There were three tables made up and several hours were enjoyed spent in playing. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Mrs. William Fischer of Beardstown was an out-of-town guest at the affair.

A delightful program of Japanese songs and readings was given during the afternoon. Mrs. Stella Mahon sang a group of Japanese songs; Miss Susanne Rhinehart played some violin selections and Mrs. Clarence Ratcliff read a group of Japanese poems. Miss Beulah Tull sang some Japanese songs and gave a reading. Mrs. Edgar Martin played a piano solo and a duet was given by Mrs. Stella Mahon and Mrs. Edith Richardson.

In the dining room tea was served and the alluring atmosphere of Japan was carried out. A miniature Japanese garden, with a lake, tiny houses, cherry blossoms and the attractive little native maidens was set in the center of the table. Mrs. E. D. Herald and Mrs. Herbert Capps in the costumes of Japan poured the tea and cherries in the rolls and Japanese bonbons added the finishing touch to this delightful affair.

The Womens Home Missionary Society Met.

The Womens Home and Foreign Missionary society of Northminster church held its meeting Thursday Jan. 19. Mrs. Lydia Scott was devotional leader and Mrs. Carrie Johnson, literary leader. Mrs. Simeon Fernandes, Mrs. Sophia Day and Mrs. Mary Baptist read very interesting articles on both home and foreign missionary work.

Officers elected for the coming year are:

President, Mrs. Nelle Timmerman; vice-president, Mrs. Myrtle Moore; recording secretary and collector, Mrs. Geo. Coraor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Effie Martin; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Day; pianist, Mrs. Lillian Siddons; assistant pianist, Mrs. Jennie DeFries.

Entertain Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell entertained a few friends at their home on North East street, Wednesday evening. The time was spent in a social way and the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zahn and family; Mrs. Adam Jaeger and children, and Miss Jessie Harding.

Celebrated Twenty-first Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Birdsell of 246 Sandusky street, celebrated their twenty-first wedding anniversary recently. There were fifty-five guests present and the occasion was one which all will long remember with pleasure. The host and hostess received a large number of very handsome pieces of china and other gifts.

Various games and contests made the evening a very interesting one, and dancing and Victrola music were also enjoyed. Miss Helen McGinnis gave several piano solos which were very much enjoyed. In one of the contests Mrs. Lulu Gauthier, and J. W. McConnell won the first prizes while Mrs. John Lewis and Charles York won the second prizes. In another contest the first prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harry Clark and J. W. Birdsell, while the second prizes were won by Mrs. Anna McGinnis and J. H. Birdsell.

Among the out-of-town guests present were, Mrs. E. E. Kryder, of Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Shoemaker and daughter from south of the city; Mr. and Mrs. Walker Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Birdsell, north of the city; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Butler, Woodson.

Elk's Dance Successful Affair.

Good fellowship prevailed last evening at the Elk's home in spite of the cooling effects of zero weather. The occasion was a dance given by the Elks and attended by about one hundred members and their families. Dick Reynolds orchestra furnished an excellent program of dance music and the affair was most successful in every way. Buffet supper was served during the evening by the club management. The dance was in charge of the social committee which includes, W. C. Bradish, Clarence Lukeman and Sherman Dorand.

Clover Leaf Girls Give Supper.

A number of the girls of the Agency Department of the Clover Leaf Casualty Company, met last evening at the home of Miss Louise Starnberg on East State street, to make plans for the Booster club supper which the department will serve Saturday night.

Bible Class Meets at Wilson Home.

The Amona Bible Class of the First Baptist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jonas Wilson, the president, on West Morton avenue. The occasion was Mrs. Wilson's birthday and the affair was planned in her honor. The afternoon was spent with sewing and conversation and a delicious luncheon was served at the close.

Entertain Y. W. Cabinet At Dinner.

Mrs. Roy F. Swift was the hostess at a 6 o'clock dinner given last evening at her home on Woodland Place for the members of the Illinois College Y. W. C. A. cabinet and advisory board. A delicious dinner menu was served and during the evening the regular business session of the board was held.

Hostess to Card Club.

Mrs. Charles Harmon was the hostess to the members of the Five Hundred club yesterday afternoon at her home on Grove street. There were three tables made up and several hours were enjoyed spent in playing. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Mrs. William Fischer of Beardstown was an out-of-town guest at the affair.

Entertained Sunday School Class.

Charles Patton entertained his Sunday school class from Central Christian church at his home on Webster avenue last night. The class is composed of ten boys from the junior department and all were present except one. The evening was spent with games and music. Prizes were awarded in a contest, and the first prize was won by Franklin Westrope and the looby prize by Clinton Arenz. Refreshments were served.

Past Noble Grand Club Met With Mrs. J. L. Pine.

The Past Noble Grand club of Jacksonville Lodge No. 13 Rebekahs met in the regular monthly meeting with Mrs. J. L. Pine in South East street Thursday evening. Miss Amelia Carlson was a guest of the club. Following the regular business session a social hour was enjoyed and the hostess served refreshments. The next meeting will be held with Miss Minnie Scott, February 16.

CHAPIN LADIES AID MET YESTERDAY

Regular Session Held at Home of Mrs. Elizabeth Bridgman—Other News of Interest from Chapin

Chapin, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Elizabeth Bridgman entertained the Ladies Aid of the M. P. church Thursday afternoon. Important business was attended to and all arrangements made to tack comforts at the February second meeting. During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. I. Williamson, served delicious refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Zahn of near Concord, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Grover Smith at supper Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nienhuwer were business visitors in Jacksonville Thursday.

Miss Betcke, the county nurse, was in town Wednesday to examine the pupils of the grade school but owing to the scarlet fever so few pupils were in attendance that the examination was indefinitely postponed.

Mrs. Harry Stewart was hostess to the Household Science club at an all day meeting Wednesday. At noon a delicious dinner was served cafeteria style. The regular program was carried out in the afternoon. Guests of Mrs. Stewart for the dinner were the Misses Dorothy Kennedy, Martha Lehman and Ina Shaul of the Community high school faculty, and Miss Irene Nieman and Miss Isabelle Fox of the grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Buhrman, Miss Amy Onken, John Onken and Arthur Perbix attended "The Bat" at the Grand Wednesday night.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT S. S. CONFERENCE.

J. S. Findley, secretary of the Morgan county S. S. association, has reports from five of the twelve precincts indicating that there will be a large attendance at the district Sunday School conference to be held at Northminster church today at noon. The largest group from out of the city reported as coming is that from Waverly which will include eight delegates.

AT WOODSON CHURCH

At the Woodson Christian church the pastor, Rev. I. H. Fuller, will next Sunday evening deliver the second of a series of special sermons. His theme will be, "What will induce more of our men and boys to attend church and Sunday school?" Answers to this question from business and professional men will be read at this meeting and the pastor will draw from them some very practical suggestions.

WILL MEET TODAY.

Circle No. 2 of Brooklyn M. E. church will meet today at 2:30 at the home of Miss Marie Goheen, 925 South East street.

QUINCY WANTS TO ESTABLISH LEAGUE

Has Plans for Valley Organization Jacksonville is Considered as One of Cities.

Baseball enthusiasts of Quincy, Hannibal and Keokuk are endeavoring to form a valley baseball league. Recently representatives of these three cities met in Quincy and formed a tentative organization.

This organization included the cities above named with Jacksonville, Burlington, Louisiana. Two other cities also were considered to make the league one of eight clubs. At this meeting it was suggested that a schedule of fifty games be arranged. This probably would mean Saturday and Sunday baseball and games on holidays.

So far as known no one has considered the matter of a baseball team for Jacksonville the coming season. Frank Smith has managed the team for several years and has given the fans good baseball. However, he has done this at some financial sacrifice. Last year he lost money and does not feel like giving his time and money to the enterprise unless it will at least pay its way which it has not done the last two years.

Salaries Too High.

Baseball, like every other business, for it must be considered as a business proposition, has become more expensive since the world war. Where formerly a battery could be secured for Sunday games for $10 it now requires all the way from twenty to one hundred dollars.

It is reported that Hartman was paid $50 a game for pitching at Roodhouse last summer. In 1916 Hartman pitched for the local team for $5 per game and his expenses and was glad of the chance. The pay of other players has increased in like proportion.

In 1906 when Jacksonville joined the old Kitty league Frank Belt, one of the best minor league catchers in the business managed the local team and caught practically all of the games for the princely salary of $125 per month. Harry Berte, who was paid $175 per month was the highest paid man on the team. The pitchers salaries ranged from $90 to $125 per month and we doubt whether any of them got the latter figure. These men played every day from the opening of the season in May until it closed in September except on days spent in traveling.

In the past few years managers of ball teams in the Three Eye League have received as high as $500 per month and players also received big pay. In addition to this is the added expense of traveling, increased hotel rates and cost of baseball supplies.

According to report sent out from Quincy after the recent meeting the tentative organization plans for a salary limit of $1,000. Judging from the present ideas of players as to salaries not much of a baseball team could be secured for that sum.

Is It Opportune Time?

However we would like to see a league again, but whether or not the present is an opportune time to start is a question. The only logical location for a good baseball park is on the site of the old West Side park. If this is secured it would be necessary to get the street car company to lay a track to the end of West State street as the old track was torn up some years ago. It would not require much money to do this. The cars always coasted down the hill from the state school for the Deaf and the pull up was at a low rate of speed so that it would not require either the rails or ties that would be necessary on a heavy traffic track.

There are some things that would be of advantage to Jacksonville. It could use the present park on the south side. A little work would make the playing field much better and a little additional lumber and some roofing would make good stands of the structure now there.

Or if the west side ground could be secured the stands at the south side park could be torn down and the lumber used at the west side site. It is said that an advertising concern has offered to enclose the field with a good fence for the privilege of the advertising.

So this is how the matter stands at present. If the fans feel that this is the opportune time to break into a league that may lead to something better, a meeting should be called and arrangements made to send a delegate to the Quincy meeting. This meeting will be held at Hotel Quincy January 25. If some one will take the initiative the press will do its share in giving the necessary publicity to the project.

KIWANIS CLUB HAD SPECIAL PROGRAM

Educational Week and Seventh Anniversary Observance—Check Staut Shows How Money Travels.

There was a good attendance at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club at the Peacock Inn Thursday noon. The program was in observance of educational week and the seventh anniversary of the international Kiwanis organization. President Felix E. Farrell presided during the earlier part of the session and then introduced Principal B. F. Shafer of the Jacksonville High school. Mr. Shafer is the chairman of the educational committee of the Kiwanis club.

The several speakers were Superintendent of Schools H. A. Perrin, Felix E. Farrell, State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson and Dr. Thomas W. Smith. In the absence of Vincent Riley, president of the Rotary club, greetings were extended from that organization by J. W. Walton.

Kiwanis always precedes its luncheon with a program of mass singing with Dr. Thomas W. Smith as the leader. There was more than usual interest yesterday in the song feature as there was in the entertainment program. It is a feature of Kiwanis to award attendance prizes each week by a drawing method. Out of the first four names drawn the first two have the opportunity to win a prize and the second two a chance at the second prize.

Yesterday's quartet, included G. C. Guthrie, B. F. Shafer, George Edman and Dr. W. H. Weirich. In the contest which followed each member was allotted a half a minute to talk about his own business or profession and then the other Kiwanians awarded the prizes for the best talk.

At the meeting last week H. E. Wheeler and William Floreth, Jr., were awarded a prize of $2 with the understanding that the story must be told of what was done with the money and the guarantee that purchases with it must be made from 15 Kiwanians.

President Farrell made out the check for $2 to C. Y. Rowe who purchased socks from Hugh Breeden and the money then passed thru the hands of other members in the following order: P. V. Coover, Lloyd Reid, H. E. Wheeler, J. G. Berger, Fletcher Hopper, J. L. Johnson, R. A. Mullenix, Edward Tomlinson, G. T. Douglas, W. J. Houston, G. P. Andre, M. E. Stout and William Floreth, Jr. Finally the check with all these endorsements upon it again reached Mr. Farrell and the original of the purchases made up an interesting story and emphasized anew what can be accomplished with a small amount of money if it is only kept in circulation.

Mr. Shafer in introducing the formal program of the day told briefly of the educational work which Rotary clubs attempt. Then Mr. Farrell gave the facts about the formation of the local Kiwanis club after Dr. F. A. McCarty, then resident in Quincy, had canvassed the local situation and asked nine prospective members to meet him in conference.

Mr. Pen extended greetings on behalf of the public schools and voiced some appreciation of the assistance given to educational work thru the Kiwanis club because of the interest shown in the school attendance of boys and girls.

State's Attorney Robinson responded in an appropriate way to the theme "What Kiwanis Has Meant to Me." Dr. Thomas Smith closed the program with an inspiring address suggesting the ways in which the Kiwanis organization interprets the thought of service and brotherhood in present day affairs.

Special emphasis was laid upon the relationship between capital and labor and the special need there is for a friendly basis of understanding. The invocation at the beginning of the luncheon was by Rev. G. E. Stickney and prayer was offered by Rev. E. L. Fletcher as a part of the educational program.

JACKSONVILLE GETS TOURNAMENT AGAIN

Dates This Year Are March 2, 3 and 4—Schools in District Boosted for Jacksonville.

Once more Jacksonville High school will have the district basketball tournament, to be held March 2, 3 and 4. There has been some doubt in the minds of the school authorities as to whether or not Jacksonville would be able to secure the tournament this year, but fortunately through the foresight of the school authorities, Jacksonville will again be the scene of this big event.

The most important factor that could have affected the State Board of Control in not locating the district tournament here was the seating capacity at the David Prince gymnasium. Springfield has for years tried to get the tournament, and this year it seemed almost inevitable that they would secure it because of the new gymnasium there with its great seating capacity.

Early in the school year Principal Shafer sent letters to all of the nearby schools that compete in this district tournament asking their opinion in regard to the location of the tournament. They were unanimous in stating that they much preferred to have the tournament at Jacksonville instead of Springfield. Many of these schools also asked what they could do to help locate the tournament here.

All of these letters were then sent to the state board of con-

DANGER OF JUST LETTING A COLD RUN ITS COURSE

Common Coughs and Colds That Hang on Persistently Are Apt to Lead to Serious Complications, Declare Authorities.

Public Warned to Beware of a Three Days' Cough and Break It Up Before It's Too Late, by Taking Kurokol, the New Scientific Discovery.

Money Refunded in Every Instance Where Kurokol Fails to Bring Relief.

Leading authorities are using every effort to arouse the public to the danger of letting common colds just run their course, for it is now definitely known that many serious lung complications such as pneumonia, grippe, etc., are the direct result of colds that hang on persistently.

Colds are curable and preventable and it is a duty everyone owes himself as well as his neighbors to break up any cold they may contract, before some serious disease gets him in its clutches. It is pointed out that a three days' cough is nature's warning and the time for immediate action has arrived.

Of all the cough and cold remedies, Kurokol, the new scientific treatment, which has been accomplishing such remarkable results all over the United States and Canada, probably provides the safest, surest and quickest, as well as the most practical treatment for colds yet discovered.

According to the statements of thousands who have used it, Kurokol is almost magical in its effect. The first dose usually stops the tendency to sneezing and coughing, and relieves the feeling of discomfort, and the second and third doses usually suffice to stop the progress of a cold altogether.

The wonderful efficiency of Kurokol in breaking up a cold is best shown by the fact that all druggists are instructed to refund money in any case where it fails to give satisfactory results after three doses have been taken.—Adv.

When Jacksonville High school sent in its application and most of the other schools also sent letters to the State Board asking to have the tournament here. These communications have had their effect and the local school greatly appreciates the cooperation given by these other schools which include Franklin, Murrayville, Waverly, White Hall, Winchester, Chapin, Virginia and Bluffs.

Adopt View Methods.
 There have been some marked changes made in the methods of conducting the tournaments this year, designed to make the contests more equal. The competing teams will be divided into two classes, according to the enrollment of the school represented. The champions of these two divisions will then play for the district championship.

A new method of dividing the tournament receipts will be used this year also. Under the new provisions the receipts will be divided as follows:

1. 1 percent of the gross receipts shall be paid to the state association.
2. 30 percent of the gross receipts shall be paid to the local school conducting the tournament.
3. From the remainder certain expenses of visiting teams shall be paid as follows:

- a. All necessary railroad fare for eight men.
- b. Hotel bills at the rate of eight dollars per night per team for each night any team must be away from home to participate in the tournament from the time the team's first game is scheduled until it is eliminated.
- c. Board bills at the rate of four dollars per meal per team for each meal during the same time.
- d. In case funds are insufficient to meet all these expenses the money is to be divided among the teams in proportion to their expenses.

4. Funds still remaining the net proceeds shall be divided as follows: 20 percent of the net proceeds shall be paid to the local school conducting the tournament, 20 percent to the State Association, and the remaining 60 percent divided equally among the visiting teams.

WOODSON HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE CLUB MEETS
 The regular meeting of the Woodson Household Science Club was held at the home of Mrs. Nettie Ezard Wednesday afternoon.

The members responded to roll call by naming the natural wonders of America. Then came several musical numbers and an interesting paper on "The Wonders and Scenery of Colorado" by Mrs. Edith Jones.

A demonstration of pineapple whip by the hostess was one of the features of the afternoon. The program closed with the singing of the club song. At the business session plans were discussed for a social to be given at the home of Mrs. Ezard on January 27, for the club members and their families.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Russel McAllister of Jacksonville.

FORMER MORGAN COUNTY RESIDENT IS DEAD.

The death of Mrs. Susan Fahy occurred Wednesday in Springfield, according to a message received by W. A. Corrington of South East street, this city. The deceased, who was ninety years of age, was formerly a resident of New Berlin. She was a widow of the late John Fahy, one of the prominent residents of New Berlin for many years, and at one time was a resident of Chapin.

Mrs. Fahy is survived by four children, Julia and Larry of New Berlin, John Dorrancey and Mrs. Mollie Dwyer, both of Springfield. There are also ten grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Mr. J. L. Robinson of this city is a relative of the deceased.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning from a Springfield Catholic church.

MURRAYVILLE CLUB WOMEN HAD SOCIAL

Members of the Murrayville Domestic Science Club held their quarterly social meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. G. G. Strange.

The husbands of the members were the special guests of this occasion and there were also a number of other guests. Progressive dominoes was the main feature of the amusement and the evening was an especially enjoyable one.

Assisting Mrs. Strange were Mrs. Arthur Seymour, Mrs. Anna Wareup, Mrs. J. H. Spencer and Mrs. L. C. Collins.

The house was very prettily decorated for the evening, the Valentine idea being used in a clever way. During the evening an excellent supper was served.

OYSTER SUPPER WAS GIVEN AT WOODSON

American Legion Gives Supper for Ex-Soldiers and Their Families at Christian Church—Other Woodson News.

Woodson, Jan. 19.—The local American Legion post gave an oyster supper Wednesday evening in the basement of the Christian church. There was a large attendance of ex-service men and their families and an excellent supper was served. The affair was given by the recently organized Post here and was for the purpose of interesting the ex-soldiers in the new organization. There is every indication that the Woodson Post will be one of the most active in the county.

The Woman's Club has been busy in recent days sewing for the Near East Relief and a total of fifty garments completed is the record thus far. Mrs. W. T. Craig, the president, took the garments to Jacksonville Thursday for shipment.

Chester Carlton, the principal of the Woodson school, took a number of the children to Jacksonville Monday to witness the production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Ten pupils went in the afternoon and at night there were twenty-five in the group.

Eugene Todd, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Todd, has been very ill but is now reported to be showing a gratifying improvement.

HAVE TROUBLE WITH AUTO TRUCK

Charles Rossman and Louis Rhoades of Waverly had an unpleasant experience yesterday. They were motoring a truck load of poultry to Jacksonville when a tire blew out. Starting the remainder of the trip to the city on the rim, they had not gone far when a rear wheel left the axle. The necessary repairs delayed their arrival in Jacksonville.

Messrs. Rossman and Rhoades are of the opinion they must have had a cackling rooster and a crowing hen in their cargo.

PLAYED AT FRANKLIN.

The Darley-Brown Serenaders played at an out-of-town engagement last evening. They furnished the music for the big American Legion dance given at Franklin.

JACKSONVILLE HAS TWO GAMES THIS WEEK

Jacksonville High school basketball squad has two games this week-end. They play Griggsville High Friday night, at Griggsville and Barry High at Barry on Saturday night. It is generally expected that the team will return with its unbroken string of victories still intact.

The dreaded examination period at the High school is practically over now. All of the quizzes except conflicting subjects, were disposed of Thursday and Friday. In case of conflicts, special examinations are being given this morning.

The teachers will have most of the examinations graded by Monday, but the reports will not be given out until Friday of next week.

PASSAVANT YEAR PASSES IN REVIEW

Facts About the Hospital Told at Annual Meeting of the Board Officers Re-Elected—Number of Patients Increases.

The annual meeting of the board of Passavant hospital was held last night, when very encouraging reports were received from different officers and departments. The tenor of these reports was to show that the year just closing has been one of the most active and satisfactory in the history of the hospital.

The election of officers resulted in the choice of the officers and executive committee who have served so efficiently during the past year.

President—A. A. Curry. Vice President—H. J. Rodgers. Treasurer—Felix E. Farrell.

These men, together with Dr. A. L. Adams and Dr. H. C. Woltman, constitute the executive committee. Dr. Adams and Dr. Woltman were chosen as members of the executive committee as representatives of the medical staff. Dr. Josephine Milligan was chosen from the medical staff as a member of the board of trustees.

The reports for the training school showed a year of earnest work in senior, intermediate and junior classes. During the year there were at least 20 applicants for entering training and a number of them were acceptable. Reference was made in this report to the hearty co-operation given by the physicians who were listed to lecture before the nurses classes.

Number of Cases Discussed Miss Venner, as superintendent of the hospital, showed the number of cases treated during the year as 1245, and the number of days of nursing care, 15,177. This meant the daily average of the number of patients was 41.6. There were 130 more patients entered in the hospital in 1921 than in the year previous.

Other figures showed more accurately the growth of the hospital, for in 1911 the average number of patients was 23.3. Five years later, or in 1916, the percentage was 31, while in 1921 the figures were 41.6.

Comment was made in this report upon the improved physical condition of the hospital during the year, with special reference to the betterments in the surgical department. In the new wing only one room remains unfinished. The largest number of patients cared for at one time in the new addition has been 17.

A statement with reference to the laundry, which has been in operation since November 28, estimated that the saving for the month of December was $178. Many other interesting facts relative to the work done during the year were given, and in concluding Miss Venner emphasized the need of a contagious building, not only for the hospital but to fill a community need.

Dr. H. C. Woltman as dean of the training school, gave a report which considered in an intimate way the problems that have arisen during the year in the operation of the school.

Financial Facts. The report of Felix E. Farrell, treasurer of the hospital, showed total receipts during the year of $57,978.11, and a balance December 31, of $4,239.98. The trustee account showed receipts of the year of $4,836.06. The total in the trust fund account is $15,050. The total of the bequests to the hospital made since June 7, 1907, was $19,701.03.

H. J. Rodgers, as chairman of the committee on laundry and building improvements, showed total receipts and pledges of $24,784.34. Of this laundry sum disbursements have amounted to $22,222.76. However there are some pledges still unpaid, and there is an actual need for $1,291.61 to pay the amount still due for the improvements.

Dr. T. O. Hardesty presented a detailed statement as secretary of the medical board of the hospital, showing the number of meetings held and some other general facts. In discussion of financial affairs Felix E. Farrell dwelt upon the advantage to the hospital there would be if the churches, who are directly responsible for the hospital, would include it in their yearly budgets and set aside a certain percentage from the funds received for the hospital use.

The report of the Hospital All society showed a year of active work for the hospital. The detailed report will be printed at another time.

S. W. NICHOLS WRITES
FROM SAN ANTONIO

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 14.—Dear Journal—I hope we shall leave every city we visit with good impressions as we shall take from San Antonio. We certainly have had a pleasant time here and the days have passed all too swiftly. The climate is very pleasant and equable—not equal to that of Arizona, yet it is good enough to attract people here year after year to remain months at a time.

One cause for this is the pleasant quality of the place. Its churches, theatres, various historical buildings, its variety in many ways, all added to good climate make it a place attracting many for long sojourns.

I have had two most delightful experiences here recently. Away back in the 70's Rev. Joshua Akers, son of the great Peter Akers, got hold of a one armed tramp. I think the tramp was intoxicated at the time. Mr. Akers, true to his holy calling, became interested in the man, induced him to pay attention to the needs of his soul and the result was thorough conversion of the man who once begged or beat his way through life.

His immediate desire was to aid his fellow wanderers for he could get hold of them as no one else could. I don't know why he called himself with the Congregational denomination, but he did. He made a certain town the scene of his first efforts and became well known as a true man trying to help those who had fallen.

One day he decided to go to Chicago to see what he could do there and boarded the train without a ticket, but tendered the conductor the proper fare, when that official came along. He at once said:

"Why Bill, I can't take your money. I know what you are going to Chicago for: to help some down and outers." The reply was:

"But you have no right to pass me," and this from the conductor.

"I know that, but the superintendent of the road is in another car and I will see him."

That superintendent, like Mr. Akers, and some others who could be mentioned, was also a minister's son and the tale of the conductor interested him and the result was an annual pass to the man.

His Work Grew.

From that on the work of the man grew. He was regularly ordained as a Congregational minister and was known far and wide as the prisoners' friend. He busied himself securing desirable books and papers to send to the penitentiaries of the west and south and thus scattered untold amount of cheer and sunshine for prison reforms had not then been instituted.

He especially busied himself getting hold of prisoners when they were discharged, for then is the critical time with them. He secured employment for them and managed to get hold of a tract of land where he would send them till they would get their hands hardened and the color of freedom in their faces as before their incarceration.

I think it was about the year 1881 that I saw in a Chicago paper, the Times, by W. L. Story, as I remember, an account of the man's work and wrote him that at that time I had no money but would be glad to help his good work in any way I could. The city press gave me free notices, the late Mr. Hatfield, shoe merchant, gave me all the boxes I needed and the people of the city responded kindly to the request for school books, miscellaneous books, magazines and illustrated papers and the result was it was my pleasure to send him two or three wagon loads of material.

E. S. Greenleaf gave me free transportation to Centralia and everything consigned to Rev. W. D. A. Mathews at Onarga had a free frank on the Illinois Central though the first shipment was taken free by the Washab.

May I be pardoned for a personal reference? One day when I was occupied in making photographs in the second story of the building now occupied by the Kresge store, I was in a little den on top of the roof. A well dressed, respectable looking man climbing up to my den and sticking his head up through the scuttle said: "Is your name Nichols?"

"Yes sir."

"I am an ex-convict out of Joliet and have been reading books and papers you have been sending there and I have come to say, 'God bless you. Good morning.'"

That was pretty good pay for some hard work. Several times Mr. Mathews came to see me and I was always deeply interested in him and did what little I could. Finally the new laws cut off free transportation for material and I was then unable to continue the work.

Hears of Old Friends.

A few days ago I met a gentleman, a Dr. Palmer, of Onarga, and at once asked for my old time friend, supposing he must be dead by this time but found he is yet alive though very old and past work. And then Dr. Palmer began telling of a few of the things that had come under his immediate observation. One worthless down and out had gone off and left his family and the children were ragged, dirty and half starved. Mr. Mathews and his good wife took them in and a book could be written about them. One of the boys is now superintendent of an important industry and drawing a large salary.

Another orphan was cast adrift and no one cared for him except the county authorities. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews couldn't see the child go to the bad from neglect and took him in when it seemed hopeless. Today he is an eminent physician in a large city.

Another boy had been so mistreated by a cruel stepfather that he was utterly void of all feeling and discipline. Mr. Mathews said he guessed there was something in the child so when the boy's mother died, Mr. and Mrs. Mathews took him in and today he is at the head of a large educational institution.

These are but a paltry few of the vast number of wonderful experiences that good men have had.

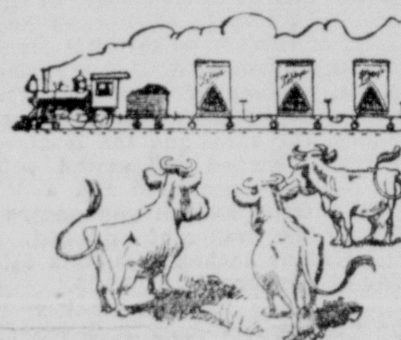

One day a particularly incorrigible prisoner was set free at the end of his term and Mr. Mathews was watching for him. He appealed to him to mend his ways but the man answered sullenly that no one cared for him and he might as well go to—
—as not. Mr. Mathews didn't think so and so earnestly persuaded the man that he listened to him and became foreman in an important factory.

I wrote him on my arrival and urged him to have his life work written and begged for the first copy. He replied kindly but declined to have the work done. He said he had been urged by various organizations to have it done but the fact was the personal experiences would be so painful or embarrassing to the persons that he preferred not to have the history written for it would be impossible to tell of the instances without disclosing the identity of the persons themselves.

How wonderful. A man with practically no education doing such a great work for so many years. His letter to me showed signs of failing strength for he must be a very old man by this time and the faithful wife who wrought with him has gone to her reward. Could he afford to exchange places with Rockefeller or any possessor of great wealth? I rather think not.

Visits Kelly Field.

Yesterday afternoon we went down to Kelly Field, where such vast sums were spent during the great world war in attempts at aviation. The works there were simply colossal. Scattered over a wide area extending for miles are structures in all directions, while many have been removed. Now they are conducting a school of aviation and repairing flying machines sent them. They do not

Why Libby's Milk travels for half fare

The milk you get in Libby cans at your grocer's is cows' milk—nothing else.

It comes from sleek, well-cared-for cows in the finest dairy sections of the country.

Libby adds nothing to it and takes out nothing but more than half the water. It is put into sterilized cans and shipped—at half fare because the weight of the evaporated water isn't there!

Because so much water has been removed, Libby's Milk is thick and rich like cream—and convenient, economical and safe.

Put Libby's on your grocer list today.

Libby's MILK
"Let your grocer be your milk man"

make them whole there. I called on Capt. Laughlin and found him a perfect gentleman. I guess my bronze button served somewhat as an introduction for at any rate he detailed a man to show us all through the place. It was, indeed, interesting to see how a flying machine is made. There are but two motors used there, the Liberty and one other kind. The frames for the wings comprise lightness and strength. All pieces of any thickness whatever are made of several thinner ones and glued together like the pieces in a chair bottom. The canvas is sewed on and treated to a preparation which draws it tight as a drum head.

The tester is a fearful affair. Absolutely deafening in the noise it makes when a Liberty motor is put up to be tried. All the wood and metal of the machines are of the choicest material and the men employed are nearly all ex-servicemen. A machine out of order is sent there to be put in shape and new ones to be tried out and men are there taking lessons in all kinds of work and in flying.

We had the pleasure of seeing a good number go up and others come down and the whole afternoon was most pleasantly spent. That day they were especially trying out a new flyer, recently constructed and of which there are but a dozen in this country. An expert from abroad was there demonstrating, and it was a monster. It weighed, without the load, 9,500 pounds, carried five men, eight machine guns, a one pounder piece. Its special purpose is to fly low and attack infantry, but let us all hope it will never be put to such a use. It made tremendous noises when it ran air and with its three wings, looked quite formidable.

I am informed that a great many of the buildings on the field have been wrecked and removed and a great many more are to share the same fate.

STOCK MARKET HAS

IRREGULAR SESSION

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—For the first time in a week the stock market today indicated an excess of offerings over demand, the first recording irregular or uneven changes thruout the active session. Call loans opened at 4 1/2 per cent, rising to 5 per cent at midday with a six per cent rate in the final half hour.

The only stocks to hold or enhance recent gains were specialties dominated by professionals and other shares in which the floating supply is believed to be so small as to make them readily available for speculative purposes. These groups again embraced the independent steels, minor equipments and sugars, where further extreme advances of 2 to 8 points were made.

Gulf States Steel was in a class by itself, adding almost twenty points to its steady upward movement and closing at $2, a net gain of 16 1/2 points.

The reactionary side of the market was featured by motors, oils, tobaccos and various miscellaneous issues including textiles and the major equipments at declines of 1 to 3 points.

Dealings in foreign exchanges, including British and French bills were light and without notable changes.

Bonds were moderately unsettled by the tighter money market market liberty issues with one exception closing at declines. Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,275,000.

WORK OF TRAINING CENTERS EXPLAINED

U. S. Veterans Bureau Purposes Recovery for Tubercular and Neuropsychiatric Cases.

"The complete 'social recovery' of the neuropsychiatric cases and recovery of health in tubercular cases is the objective of the 58 training centers established outside of hospitals under the U. S. Veterans' Bureau. Fifty of these training centers are non-resident, while eight of them are resident.

These training centers have been established principally for tubercular and neuropsychiatric cases." Col. Charles R. Forbes, director of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau stated today.

The resident training center at Pascagoula, Mississippi, was established on the site of a war-time ship building corporation. A community had been established here for the workmen in the shipbuilding plant and when it was taken over for the purpose of a training center there was ready for occupancy a large number of cottages and other buildings common to such a community. This made it pleasant and convenient for the married trainees, who were thereby enabled to have their families with them. The resident center at Nauvoo, Ill., has both neuropsychiatric and tubercular trainees. However these men are convalescent cases not sufficiently recovered to take a full course of training and yet not so sick as to necessitate their remaining in a hospital.

Outlines Daily Program.
A certain number of hours a day is devoted to study, while sufficient time is allotted for rest and recreation. They are under the supervision of the medical officers who prescribe the necessary amount of study, rest and recreation, making possible a program which could not be carried out elsewhere. The training center which is being completed at Bellevue, Neb., will be devoted primarily to neuropsychiatric cases. Another recently opened at Fort Jefferson, New York, with all modern facilities and conveniences for the proper handling of convalescent cases. These cases can be best taken care of when the training is based on "prescription" and the Rehabilitation Division of the Veterans' Bureau has been studying the best types of vocations to be taught neuropsychiatric cases. They confidently predict that practically every neuropsychiatric case will make a "social recovery," through the proper type of training, so arranged as to tide these men over their period of convalescence.

The chief tuberculosis consultant for the veterans' bureau is at present engaged in getting these centers up to the maximum of efficiency for the care of disabled veterans, and the chief neuropsychiatric consultant is advising regarding the programs for the neuropsychiatric cases.

A model training center has recently been opened at Silver Springs, Maryland. The men are being taught general agriculture, carpentry, cabinet-making, machine shop work, electrical trades, leather work, mechanical drawing and the necessary academic subjects, which make this vocational training feasible. The trainees are housed in a modern dormitory, comfortable and pleasant and everything has been done to make the surroundings agreeable for these disabled veterans.

SET NEW STANDARDS FOR HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Parents in Springfield Unite With School Authorities in Endeavor to Bring About More Satisfactory Conditions—Share Responsibility in Fair Way.

There have been some happenings in connection with the high school and eighth grades in Springfield that have resulted in a larger interest being taken in the schools by the Parent-Teacher associations. There has occasionally been misconduct and recently the parents banded together and agreed to take their share of responsibility, expressing the belief that thru such interest the standards of the school could be best maintained and giving recognition to the fact that the school management cannot bear the blame for all unsatisfactory conditions unless parental authority and guardianship is maintained.

A committee from the Parent-Teacher association was sometimes since appointed to formulate a report on the schools and make suggestions for methods of securing new standards of responsibility. After the report had been adopted it was submitted to 100 or more prominent citizens for endorsement. There is so much of interest in this report to the parents and pupils of high schools in all cities that it is presented here, reprinted from the Illinois State Journal:

Report of Committees.

The report of the committee follows:

"In compliance with the request made in the report of the committee on education, which report was endorsed by the Parent Teachers' association of the high school, your committee recommends that as the first step in cooperating with the spirit of that report, a communication be sent to the parents of high school and grammar grade pupils giving information and suggestions embodied in the following report.

"We feel much is being done sometimes in a very quiet way to promulgate high standards of scholarship and morality. There are questions on which there will always be a difference of opinion and it is the spirit of this report to allow each one his own opinion it is not an effort to dictate to any family the rules by which their children shall be raised, but it does take into consideration the social fact that 'No man liveth unto himself alone.'

"There is a spirit of school loyalty and comradeship among the children. We feel there should be developed among the parents a similar comradeship and loyalty to those ideals and habits which are best for the children in order that individual parents trying to enforce proper standards may have the consciousness that others are working in behalf of similar ends. Such cooperation on the part of parents would tend to eliminate the use of that tantalizing phrase 'Everybody else is doing it.'

"The communication to parents should consider the legal, physical, educational and moral aspect of the conduct of school children.

The Legal Aspects of Conduct.

"1. It is illegal for a boy or girl in the public schools to belong, or to pledge to belong to a fraternity or a sorority.
"2. It is illegal to sell tobacco to minors under 16 years of age.
"3. It is illegal for a minor under 15 years of age to drive an automobile.
"4. It is illegal for a minor under 18 years of age to frequent a public pool hall.
"5. It is illegal to own, operate, or patronize gambling devices of any kind.
"6. It is illegal to participate in gambling of any kind.

Physical Aspects of Conduct.

"1. Parents should not allow children to suffer physical eye strain which should be corrected by the use of glasses. Eye strain is often the cause of failure in school.
"2. Parents should not allow children to neglect examination of their teeth.

"3. Parents should be sure that their children get sufficient sleep. The teachers can usually tell when children have been attending late parties or dissipating their energies in other ways. A reasonable suggestion for regular bedtime of school children seems to be from 8:30 until 10, according to the age and physical condition of the child.

"4. As far as possible all social activities should be barred from school nights with the exception of Friday. Where it is necessary that activities be held on school nights, it is urged that they begin not later than 7:30 and close by 9 o'clock.

"5. All parents should know of the existence of a school rule to the effect that meetings of any kind held in school buildings shall close not later than 11 o'clock.

"6. Proper chaperonage is always essential for young people whether in the home, the church, the school, public building or the automobile.

Moral Aspects of Conduct.

"1. Parents should know what is a reasonable time for children to be home from school and discourage their loitering down town, congregating in drug stores, moving picture lobbies, or other public places.

"2. Parents should know the time for the opening of school and arrange that children avoid tardiness and on the other hand not allow children to start for school earlier than is advisable.

"3. Parents should be familiar with what is supposed to be a reasonable allowance for school lunches. If you do not know what your child is eating, inquire. If lunch money could talk, it might tell interesting stories of how it was spent.

"4. Parents should understand how the automobile may be the source of moral delinquency. An Indiana judge recently stated that the automobile was responsible for 80 to 90 percent of delinquency of the boys and girls coming into his court. A car placed in the hands of a young boy or girl may be the source of great temptation and possibly much harm. Complaints are often made of boys and girls joy riding after school and following evening parties. Indiscretions of more or less serious nature may be a part of these joy rides.

"5. Parents should understand that membership in a sorority or fraternity by a school child is illegal, and should cooperate with the school board and the societies themselves in enforcing this law. Aside from the question of their democracy, their parties arouse frequent criticism of objectionable features manifest especially in holiday parties such as extravagance, drinking, grave indiscretions, and late hours. Under whatever auspices these objectionable features are found they are detrimental to the good name of our city and public sentiment should seek to abolish them.

"6. Parents should encourage modest and not extravagant dressing. Requests have come that girls be not allowed to put on rouge in the school corridors. This whole question of rouging, proper dressing, and modest behavior, your committee feels needs the most serious and tactful consideration on the part of parents. Things that in themselves may seem small and trivial may be simply the releasing of brakes or the breaking down of safeguards that may lead to ruin in your own child or in his or her friend.

"7. Parents should encourage wholesome and proper recreation for their children. Many parents are meeting this need by inviting neighborhood groups into their homes on Friday evening, by encouraging the free use of the home for the meeting of congenial groups and by cooperating with school, churches and allied organizations.

"8. Parents should know what school societies have the approval of the high school authorities.

"9. Parents should emphatically discourage the repeating of any scandal in connection with the high school. If at any time a bit is heard they should go to the high school authorities before repeating it elsewhere. Some reports are false and many are exaggerated, and sympathetic attention is always given where school authorities are properly informed. Gossip may add spice to life but it also may sting like an adder.

WOODSON WOMAN'S CLUB MET WEDNESDAY

Interesting Session Held at Christian Church in Woodson—Other News of Interest from Woodson.

Woodson, Jan. 18.—The regular meeting of the Woodson Woman's club was held Wednesday afternoon at the Christian church. There was a large attendance and the members responded to roll call by telling of "Places of Interest Visited." The program included the following numbers:

Song, "Hold the Fort"—Mrs. A. E. Powell, with Miss Hazel Green as accompanist.
Paper, "A Trip on the Longest River in the World"—Mrs. John Longland.
Piano solo, Coronation Grand March—Miss Hazel Green.

This was a number played in England at the time of the coronation of King Edward and the music was brought by Mrs. Powell from England.

Paper, "A Pleasure Trip"—Mrs. Powell.

At the business session plans were discussed for raising the additional sum necessary to complete the $100 pledged toward the Morgan county tuberculosis sanatorium, $80 of which has already been paid. Nothing of a definite nature has yet been determined upon.

News Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brannan of White Hall spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steinmetz and family. They were accompanied home by Mr. Brooks' father, J. S. Brooks, who has visited his niece, Mrs. Steinmetz, for the past six weeks.

Miss Polly Hanback and Neal Andrews, both of Jacksonville, and Miss Ruth Lacey and Miss Lucille Owings of Pearl were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Owings.

The Unity Workers of the Presbyterian church will serve a chicken pie supper at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Powell on January 26.

Mrs. Laura Green has returned to her home in Modesto after attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Wright and her uncle, W. D. Henry.

Salem Ladies Aid will serve supper commencing at 6:30 p. m. Thursday evening, Jan. 19, at the home of Charles Dodds. Proceeds to go to the "Kitchen Fund."

ANTHRACITE MINERS WILL DEMAND TWENTY PER CENT INCREASE

Resolution Providing for Suspension of Mining on April 1 if No Agreement is Reached—Proposed New Agreement Will Run for a Period Not to Exceed Two Years

(By The Associated Press)
SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 20.—The Tri-State convention of the anthracite mine workers today adopted the recommendation of the scale committee demanding a twenty per cent increase in wages for contract miners and a one dollar a day increase for all day men.
The convention had before it tonight a recommendation providing for a suspension of mining on April 1st in the event that no satisfactory agreement has been reached by that date.
Leaders said there was every prospect of its adoption. The delegates also adopted a demand that the proposed new agreement to take place of the present one which expires March 31, shall not exceed a period of two years.
The scale committee presented to the convention nineteen proposed demands on the operators and three recommendations to be carried out by the scale committee.

ALL INDICTMENTS ARE NOLLED BY STATE'S ATTORNEY

Only Charge Against Sterling Now is Conspiracy

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 20.—All indictments against Lieutenant Governor Fred E. Sterling in connection with the alleged Small-Sterling-Curtis conspiracy to plunder the state treasury, except the same charges of conspiracy which Governor Small and Vernon Curtis face in Lake county, were nulled by State's Attorney C. F. Mortimer here tonight.
The Sterling indictments were pending in the Sangamon county circuit court where they had their origin. The lieutenant governor having sought no change of venue as Governor Small and Curtis.
Annulment of the embezzlement and confidence game indictments against Lieutenant Governor Sterling were made by State's Attorney Mortimer said, in order to leave the status of the Sterling cases in Sangamon county the same as those against the other defendants in Lake county.
Appearing before Judge E. S. Smith, just before the close of court the state's attorney said:
"In a similar motion in the circuit court of Lake county the state's attorney nulled a similar indictment against the defendant, Len Small. In a joint embezzlement indictment in which the defendant Sterling is the sole remaining defendant in this jurisdiction the honorable court of Lake county quashed the indictment. In simple justice to the defendant, Sterling, it seems that I should nolle these indictments here because all the facts and circumstances are the same and remain in the conspiracy case."
Judge Smith entered the annulling order immediately.
Prosecution of the Sterling case here will hang fire, it was believed pending the outcome of the Small and Curtis conspiracy trials at Waukegan where the governor and his banking associate took their cases on a change of venue last October.

BAPTIST LAYMEN FORM ORGANIZATION

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Laymen of the Baptist church from thirty northern states meeting here today voted to form a permanent organization to be known as the National Council of Northern Baptist Laymen. The council will assist in carrying on the work of the church, devoting particular attention to the church's financial needs. It was voted today to launch immediately a campaign to raise $15,000,000 to carry on the educational, philanthropic and mission work of the church for the present fiscal year.
Permanent officers of the laymen's organization were elected.

ORANGES FROZEN ON THE TREES IN CALIFORNIA

Cold Wave Does Thousands Of Dollars Worth of Damage

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 20.—Millions of oranges were frozen on the trees of Southern California last night and severe but undetermined damage was suffered by citrus fruit growers by the worst frost that has struck this region in nine years according to officials of the growers organization.
Continued cold weather was anticipated tonight and arrangements were made for smudging large areas of orchards.
Exactly what damage the frost will do depends largely upon the sought of weather that succeeds it growers said. If the weather warms up gradually so that the frozen fruit can thaw out slowly the crop loss will be less severe than otherwise they declared.
The crop of oranges was damaged seriously and a sharp reduction of the lemon production may be expected as a result of the freezing of young fruit according to local horticultural officials.
Southern California today had a variety of novelties, automobile radiators burst by freezing, frozen water pipes, ice on ponds and ditches and a shortage of gas, due to the unusual demands made on the mains for heating purposes were among them.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD'S POLICY IS CRITICIZED

Is Made by Joint Commission of Agricultural Inquiry

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Criticism of the federal reserve board's policy during the months following the armistice is coupled with recommendations that existing banking agencies be adapted to meet the credit requirements of farmers in a report submitted to congress today by the joint commission of agricultural inquiry.
The report from the commission of which Representative Anderson, Republican, Minnesota, is chairman deals with banking and financial resources of the country especially as affecting agricultural interests. It stresses the importance of filling the gap between short and long time credit and concludes that the "present" gap can be effectively and safely bridged without the necessity of machinery and without sacrificing any of the fundamental principles upon which both the farm loan system and the federal reserve system must rest.
Reviewing conditions that have confronted farmers since the war the report declares:
"It is the opinion of the commission that a policy of restriction of loans and discounts by advances in the discount rates of the federal reserve banks could and should have been adopted in the early part of 1919."
The commission also believes that had such a policy been adopted in 1919 the difficulties, hardships and losses which occurred in 1920-21 as a result of the process of deflation and liquidation would have been diminished.
The commission believes that the credit problem of the farmer can best be met by adopting banking agencies to his credit requirements.
In meeting these requirements there is no reason why all of the banking agencies of the country cannot be used by adapting them to the farmers' requirements.
Remedy is Offered.
"The commission proposes to meet these requirements by authorizing any federal land bank through a separate department created in it under restrictions, limitations, conditions and regulations adopted by the farm loan board to rediscunt paper on which money has been advanced to, or used by the farmer for agricultural purposes having a maturity of not less than six months or more than three years at rates or discount to be fixed by the farm loan board for any national bank, state bank, trust company, savings institution of livestock loan company.
"In addition the commission deems it desirable to permit the federal land banks to make loans direct to co-operative associations of farmers organized under state laws for the purpose of marketing staple agricultural products when such loans are secured by warehouse receipts upon such products.
"The notes or obligations representing loans or discounts by the federal land banks are to be converted into short time debentures and sold to the public in the same way as farm loan bonds are now sold.
"It is proposed further that notes taken or rediscouted by a federal land bank shall be eligible for rediscout with any federal reserve bank when such loans have reached a maturity of less than six months."

NEW BOMB PROOF MAIL CARS USED FOR FIRST TIME

Ship Mail Over New York Central Lines from New York

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Chicago mail tonight was loaded for the first time in new "bomb-proof" mail cars introduced by the New York Central Lines for economic, swift and safe transport of freight, express and mail matter in less than car load lots.
These cars were developed by the government, beset by mail bandits contracted for use of the cars in the regular mail service.
The containers, each with a capacity of 435 cubic feet were looked at the general post office. Then they were taken to the station on motor trucks lifted by cranes and then lowered into grooves on the container cars.
Motor trucks will meet the mail train at Chicago, transport the containers across town to another railroad terminal and make it possible for the northwest mail to be on the second lap of its journey with less than an hour's delay.
An eastbound container car left Chicago this morning and will arrive in New York Saturday.

REPRESENTATION IS DEMANDED ON PARTY TICKETS

Service Men Are Now Laying Plans for Active Campaign

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—The service men's campaign committee, an organization composed of Illinois men who participated in wars in which this country has been engaged, tonight adopted resolutions demanding representation for service men in party affairs and on party tickets.
The resolution urged members to support service men for office, regardless of political party and to support candidates for office who assist service men by appointment to offices which the service man is best qualified to fill.
Another resolution expressed the organization's intention to have representatives at the polls when the Illinois bonus bill is voted on next fall and still another expressed the intention to examine the qualifications of every aspirant to political office based on the candidates' qualifications and his record of loyalty to his country.
Congress was urged to compel all newspapers printed in a foreign language to give the English translation of all matter in parallel columns.

EXTORTIONATE INTEREST RATES ON FARM LOANS

Will Be Considered By Agricultural Conference

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Farm financing came promptly to the front today when the announcement by Secretary Wallace that he would lay before the national agricultural conference next week charges that certain companies loaning money on farm mortgages were taking advantage of the present crisis to charge extortionate interest rates.
At the same time the agricultural department made public information that had gathered for possible use of the conference showing that the banks of the United States had outstanding approximately $3,869,891,415 personal and collateral loans to farmers and $1,444,482,926 in farm mortgage loans at the end of 1920.
"In all lines of business," the secretary declared in a statement, "we find predatory individuals who seek opportunities to take advantage of the misfortunes of others."
These charges he added, did not apply to all companies making loans to farmers for some he said were doing the right thing and helping the farmers all they could in the present situation. Others, however, Mr. Wallace asserted emphatically "are taking advantage of the farmers distress to heartlessly extort a rate of interest and terms of loan which cannot be justified."
Charles S. Barrett, president of the national board of farm organizations and president of the national farmers' union also issued a statement prepared for the conference delegates in which he declared that the government had "ditched" the farmers, because through the federal reserve board and other agencies it allowed a ruinous artificial deflation to bring agriculture to its present deplorable straits.
Must Give Speedy Aid.
Real success for the conference Mr. Barrett asserted would be possible only if a plan is evolved "thru which speedy aid will be given the farmers so that they can continue as producers of food and clothing materials for this country and for a large part of the world."
It may cost a billion or several billion dollars to do this, he added, "but the investment must be made."
The only way to avert ruin throughout the world, he continued, was to have this year an abundant crop for which two things were necessary, credits and a fair price to the farmers for their products.
Secretary Wallace also made public the names of twenty-six women whom announced would probably participate in the conference as delegates. Acceptance has already been received from the majority of them. Among the names made public were:
Mrs. Oliver Wilson, of Peoria; Miss Mary E. Sweeney, of Lansing, Michigan, dean of home economics, Michigan Agricultural College; Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, wife of Representative Ketcham of Michigan; Miss Neale S. Knowles, of Iowa State College, Ames, Ia.; and Mrs. Russell Tyson of Chicago, president of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

COAL PRODUCERS COMPLETE CASE FOR LOWER RATES

Argue That Present Freight Rates Cause Depression

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Coal producers completed their arguments in favor of lower freight rates before the interstate commerce commission today and gave way to representatives of the steel industry.
Robert Hula for iron and steel manufacturers in the Chicago district, presented the general conclusion that present freight rates are a burden which has undoubtedly contributed to the existing depression in industry.
He expressed the opinion that the commission should protect the earning power of the railroads, but declared that next to coal, steel was the commodity which should be considered in any rate reduction.
Throughout the discussion of coal rates, the commission and experts sought facts as to impending wage reductions and possibilities of a strike about April 1. H. W. Prickett, testifying for Wyoming and Utah mine operators, urged rate reduction of 20 percent in the territory and said that the producers had already cut costs and intended to make lower wage scales April 1. J. D. A. Morrow, vice-president of the National Coal association, was recalled for cross-examination and questioned as to the possibility of a national coal strike at the time. He replied that "he made it his business to know nothing about the labor side of the industry," but added that the operators expected wages to be cut then.
W. J. Thompson, secretary of the Anthracite Producers association, followed with the statement that "present prices of domestic anthracite are too high for the average consumer to pay," and that, "railroad and mine wages continue at high levels."
Mine wage cuts would be effective after April 1, he said, but the anthracite producers, also "gravely doubting," that general rate reduction would restore general prosperity.

WILL RECEIVE PLANS ON MERCHANT MARINE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—President Harding expects to receive early next week plans prepared by experts for dealing with the merchant marine question. A number of suggestions have been prepared and the president, his callers said today, will consider them carefully. The problem is regarded by the executive as one of utmost difficulty, because of opposition to any policy favoring of a ship subsidy.
That the government should get out of the ship business was said at the white house to be broadly, Mr. Harding's present personal conviction.

ROME, Jan. 21.—3:40 A. M.—The condition of Pope Benedict is slowly growing worse and now is extremely grave.
His mental faculties are showing signs of decline. Frequently the pontiff murmurs incoherent phrases.
After receiving communion the pope asked for extreme unction, which was administered shortly after 2 o'clock this morning by Monsignor Zampini, assisted by Monsignor Testoni. At the conclusion of the ceremony the pontiff called Monsignor Zampini to his bedside, thanked him and shook his hand. As a result of the pope's insistent appeals Professor Battistini left the chamber at 2:40 o'clock for a short rest.

WILL CONSTRUCT MEMORIAL FOR F. W. GALBRAITH

An Appropriation of $25,000 Made by American Legion

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 20.—Construction of a memorial in Cincinnati to the late F. W. Galbraith, Jr., former national commander of the American Legion was authorized today by the Legion's national executive committee. An appropriation of $25,000 for the memorial was authorized. The committee also designated Oct. 16 to 20 as the dates for the fourth annual convention which is to be held in New Orleans.
The first day of the conference of departmental officers who assembled was devoted to discussion of the plight of disabled world war veterans and plans for their relief.
The United States Veterans Bureau was criticized by several speakers.
Julius F. Lynch of Norfolk, Va., declared the trouble was not so much with the bureau but that the bureau was left too much in the hands of Brigadier General Sawyer, President Harding's personal physician. General Sawyer was characterized by the speakers as a "man who had not donned the army uniform until two years after the armistice was signed."
A resolution was adopted calling on the federal government to exert all its facilities in behalf of disabled veterans and demanding an immediate settlement of long pending claims.
Other resolutions adopted authorized national Commander Hanford MacNider to appoint an athletic commission to arrange a national system of competition between legion athletic teams, requested the navy department to investigate reports of discrimination against ex-service men in employment at navy yards and asking the war department to retain the American cemetery at Bony, France, where a large number of Americans who fought on the British front are buried.

SAMUEL INSULL SAYS

Asserts No Foreigner Shall Dictate Policy of Company

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Mary Garden positively will direct the Chicago Grand Opera company next year and "no foreigner will be allowed to interfere with the company's welfare," Samuel Insull, head of the new civic opera association which handles the company, declared in a statement tonight discussing the recent resignation of Lucien Muratore, tenor, and reports that other "starkers" might revolt against Miss Garden's management.
"I heartily approve Miss Garden's statement that foreign domination in this country has ended and that American dictation is to have a try," Mr. Insull said.
"Muratore made a grandstand play in resigning and got a lot of publicity. He has never done anything for the company and he is not given value received for the high salary paid him. The company can easily survive Muratore."

JUDGE LANDIS IS SERIOUSLY ILL

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Federal Judge K. M. Landis is "seriously ill" with bronchial trouble, it was announced at his office tonight. Judge Landis has been confined to his home for several days with a bad cold but it was announced today that his failure to quickly recover had caused his physicians to order him to bed. The doctors said that they feared influenza or pneumonia which might prove fatal to a man of the Judge's age.

Perhaps the employment situation is not as serious as sometimes pictured. A farmer living not far away, came into Jacksonville recently and offered five different men work on his farm for a few days period at $3 a day. True, the men were "tourists" temporarily in the city, but not one of them wanted a job at the kind of work offered.

There is continued talk of the need of credit for farmers and the difficulty that these men engaged in agricultural pursuits, are having in financing their projects. There are no doubt isolated cases where a farmer entitled to credit cannot secure all the money he needs, but these cases are in the minority. A financial man told the truth the other day when he said, "It isn't credit that the farmer needs. It is just decent prices for the things that he sells." By decent he meant prices in line with those that the farmer must pay for the articles and commodities that he buys.

United States senators by a very large majority, have gone on record as favoring adjusted compensation for ex-service men at the present session of congress. This action will be gratifying to 4,000,000 ex-service men, their constituents and a great many other people as well. Since the senators have so recorded their views, they should not side step and tie up the proposed bill with some impossible source of revenue, one which properly has no connection with the proposal.

The booster good roads meeting held Tuesday night under Chamber of Commerce auspices should bring beneficial results to this locality. Colonel Miller, as the head of the department of public works, has a very large influence in deciding when and where hard road betterments shall be made. Senator Meents, through the bill he introduced, is in a measure responsible for the legislation which furnished a large influence for reducing construction prices to a reasonable level.

Morgan county people should extend these visitors every possible courtesy and impress upon them the definite local desire for increased hard road construction in this county.

tion on the seas is having its effect. espatches from London indicate that British shipping interests are much perturbed over the situation. The announced desire of President Harding to secure legislation from congress authorizing the payment of a subsidy to American ship owners, coupled with the proposal to convert scrapped American battleships into commercial vessels, has brought home to the British the need of additional aid from their own government if they wish to maintain their present standing in maritime commerce.

It is reported that the mayors of several English cities have taken the matter up among them, construction of transatlantic liners of 33 knots speed that would make the crossing in three days. They are also to be the last word in luxury in modern ocean travel. American commerce may suffer some loss if the plan is put into execution, but the tremendous cost of operating vessels of that character will necessitate correspondingly high passenger and freight rates, so that the element of competition may not be affected so much as at first appears.

A STRIDE TOWARD NORMAL

The Democrats had eight years in which to run up national debts by extravagance and waste, to scramble the railroads, to inflate and deflate the currency, and to encourage socialism. And they expected the Republicans to get the nation back to normal in eight months. It could not be done, but they did the best they could. The country is on the way to normal and has made good progress, as industrial statistics will demonstrate in the next few months.

Liberty bonds that sold for 85 cents on the dollar a few months ago are above 95 cents now. An increase of 10 cents on 85 is an increase of nearly 12 percent. That is to say, holders of Liberty bonds are 12 percent better off than they were when the Republicans came into power. That is not a bad start on the way back to normal. — Winston-Salem (N. C.) CLUBS AND SOCIETY

Roy Webster Entertained At Six o'Clock Dinner.

Roy Webster entertained a company of friends at 5 o'clock dinner at his home, 525 East College avenue Friday evening, the occasion being his 42nd birthday. Following the dinner the evening was spent in dancing and the event proved a most pleasant one.

Queen Esther Met Friday Evening.

The Queen Esther Society met last evening at the Centenary church. This was the regular meeting and a good attendance showed the interest manifested by the new members. The devotional services were led by Miss Clara Smith. After the business session the club took up the race question as the evening topic for discussion. At the close of the session refreshments were served the hostesses being Miss Dorothy Brown, Miss Helen Bergstrom and Miss Katherine Wetzel.

Happy Hour Class Met.

Members of the Happy Hour class of State Street Presbyterian church met at the home of Miss Thille Goebel on South Main street Friday afternoon. The time was spent in making surgical dressings for Passavant hospital. After the work came a social hour with refreshments.

Entertained Alpha Eta Pi.

Members of the Alpha Eta Pi society of Illinois college attended a meeting of the Agora society Friday afternoon. Miss Sylvia Taylor presented a paper on "Modern Drama" and a reading was excellently given by Miss Golda Taylor. The question for debate was "Resolved, That Labor Unions as They Now Exist Are Beneficial." Misses Mabel Ruyle and Mary L. Frye spoke for the affirmative and Misses Winifred Butcher and Mary Cummings for the negative. The afternoon was very profitably spent.

Miss McQuiston, faculty adviser of the Alpha Eta Pi society, was a guest of the occasion.

REVIVAL CLOSURE AT MT. EMORY

The revival services which have been held for the past two weeks at Mt. Emory Baptist church closed last evening. During the services a number of additions were made to the church and the entire series of meetings were of unusual interest to the members and friends of Mt. Emory.

Evangelist Johnson preached his farewell sermon on the subject, "The Undertaker at the Door." The sermon drew a large congregation. If possible the speaker's last sermon was delivered with more power and eloquence and had more far-reaching influence than any of his former ones. The influence of the two weeks' service will be felt among those who attended and will be of benefit to the community.

U. S. COURT RULES IN DAMAGE SUIT

Court of Appeals Reverses Previous Finding in Scott County Against the Wabash Road.

The United States circuit court of appeals has reversed the finding of the U. S. district court in the case of Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, vs. Orion A. Woodson, defendant. This was an action in which Mr. Woodson, who owns land not far from Bluffs, brought suit against the Wabash railroad for damages, because of back water, alleged to have overflowed a portion of his farm because of the construction of a certain bridge by the Wabash.

The suit for $5,000 damages was originally filed in the circuit court of Scott county, but was transferred to the federal court in Springfield. There judgment against the railroad was secured for $2,750. Then an appeal was taken by Walter Dellatti and Paul Moriarty as attorneys for the Wabash, and the finding of the U. S. circuit court of appeals sustains their contention that the Wabash was not at fault in the matter, and the decision of the lower court has been reversed.

In the original proceeding the complainant was represented by Judge McKean of Scott county and O. J. Putting of Springfield. Two other suits of the same complaint and against the same defendant are now pending, each one brought for a different year and alleging damages from the water. The second suit is for approximately $5,000 and was transferred from the Scott county circuit court to the federal court where damages were allowed and a further appeal taken to the U. S. circuit court of appeals. The third suit was also filed in the Scott county circuit court and as the damages asked were less than $5,000 the appeal was taken to the appellate court and the case is now pending there.

It was the principal contention of the defendant that the Wabash had placed a bridge or bridges in the channel of a natural water course and that the flow of the water had thus been so obstructed that it overflowed and injured the plaintiff's crops. It was the principal claim of the attorneys for the railroad that the bridges constructed were not in a natural water course and that for this reason the fact of their construction had not caused the back water about which Mr. Woodson complained.

It was evidently the opinion of the U. S. circuit court of appeals that the bridge was not constructed in a water course. Some of the paragraphs outlining the reasoning of the circuit court of appeals are given as taken from the printed opinion:

Case Is Outlined.

Defendant in error, herein called plaintiff, for thirteen years part owner of a ten-acre tract of land and lessee for the same time of the land of the co-plaintiff (dismissed out of this case) obtained a judgment against plaintiff in error, Director General of Railroads, herein called defendant, on the charge that defendant had wrongfully and illegally caused to be placed and maintained within the channel of a natural water course two bridges, by reason whereof the timber and piling parts of said bridges caught drift-wood, etc., thereby obstructing the natural flow of the water, so that it overflowed and injured plaintiff's crops. The Wabash Railway Company was also made a defendant, but was dismissed from the case by plaintiff.

The general course of the Keokuk line of the Wabash Railroad from Bluffs in Scott County, Illinois, to Bridge 277A, the most easterly of the two bridges complained of, was substantially east and west. The natural flow of all waters in that vicinity was from the north and northeast to the south and southwest, and the railroad, probably at the time of its construction, built, as a part of its road, Bridge 500, one of the bridges complained of, just east of Bluffs, and made numerous other openings for the passage of the water to the south. Wolf Creek, originating in the territory north and east of Bluffs, passed unobstructed thru Bridge 500 to the south and west, and it is conceded that no injury accrued to plaintiff from that bridge. This is important because it is the only bridge, covered by the declaration built over a natural water course, and with that bridge out of the case there is no complaint or evidence that the openings in the roadbed, as it was originally built, were not and had not at all times since been sufficient to permit the escape of the waters from north of the railroad to the south.

Bridge 277A, which is claimed to have caused the damage suffered by plaintiff, was built in 1888 and was supported by abutments at each end and by three bents, or wooden piling, one in the middle and the others about 16 feet either side of the middle, and the bridge has been maintained in that position and condition ever since its construction. Before the building of that bridge, the probably had been an opening of passage way for water thru which no water passed, unless at times some surface water passed toward the south.

Fault Bridge at Owners' Risk.

Bridge 277A was built by the Wabash Railroad on the request of the former owner of plaintiff's land and the owners of other lands, as a part of their plans to reclaim their lands from overflow. A year after 277A was built the land owners made a channel under the bridge and along the south side of the right-of-way towards the west, and also built on the south thereof a low levee, so that the waters from Wolf Creek instead of overflowing their lands were carried thru the channel to and under the bridge. That part of the channel made along the south side of the right-of-way of the railroad was so made that it was necessary to make a right angle turn to get under the bridge.

The bridge was made some ten feet longer than was asked for by the property owners, and the three bents, above mentioned, were placed at an angle from northwest to southeast, so as to facilitate the flow of the water. In addition to the fact that the evidence shows the bridge to have been properly constructed and adequate for all known purposes when built, the evidence also shows no complaint whatever by anybody, then or since, except that in 1919, brush, plank, poles and a variety of drift wood, were caught by the bents, so that the passage of the water was stopped and backed up, from which the overflow resulted. This is the injury for which recovery is sought.

There is some evidence in regard to the levee, wholly uncontradicted, that is important in this case, and it is that from a point 200 to 250 yards northwest of bridge 500 down to Bridge 277A there was, thirty years ago, a small levee which was built higher at different times since then. There is no evidence that shows whether the process of building up was completed more than twenty years ago or not, but it does appear that in 1919 the levee had been raised to such a height in places that if there was sufficient water, and the levee held, the water would go over the top of the Wabash rails.

While the plaintiff testified that it does not take much of a rain for the debris rubbish and drift-wood to accumulate at Bridge 277A and stop the flow entirely, four or five times in a season, yet it does not appear that plaintiff's crops were damaged.

Four Questions Considered.

From these facts, several questions are presented upon various assignments of error, but defendant, at the close of all the evidence, made a motion to instruct the jury to return a verdict for the defendant, which motion was denied. Error was assigned on this refusal of the court, and as such a motion raised every legal objection to a recovery by the plaintiff on the pleadings, evidence and law, we consider the questions arising under that motion.

(1) Defendant contends that the Director General of Railroads neither built the bridge nor had any notice of its insufficiency, and therefore can not be held liable for damages. We are of opinion that the courts of Illinois have determined this question in accordance with defendant's contention. Plaintiff's urge is that in Groff vs. Ankenbrandt, 124 Ill. 51, the only question was the sufficiency of one count of the declaration, which did not allege that defendant erected the levee. In this, we think that counsel is in error.

(2) Was there any obligation upon the defendant to in any manner alter or change the bridge under the circumstances shown in the evidence? In the Tetherington Case, supra, the court not only reaffirmed the doctrine of the Groff Case, but in its construction of the statute of 1891, above cited, said that the effect of that act was to change the law with reference to nuisances, as held in the Groff Case, in so far as applied to railroads constructed after the passage of the act.

It is not thought that the statute of 1891 can have any influence of this case. Authority is thereby given to a railroad to construct its railway across, along or upon any stream of water or water-course, but requires that it shall restore the stream or water-course to its former state, or to such state as not unnecessarily to have impaired its usefulness. In as much as the water-course in question in this case did not exist when the bridge in question was constructed, there was no stream of water or water-course to restore.

(3) Great stress is laid upon the averment and claim that the water flowing under Bridge 277A became, after a lapse of twenty years, a natural water-course, and also gave the plaintiff and other property owners prescriptive rights.

The authorities state the general rule with reference to rights by prescription. The piles or bents under Bridge 277A were part of the bridge when it was constructed. When the property owners dug the trench under the bridge the bents and piles were there, and have been ever since. Neither the plaintiff nor any property owner ever had any right to the flow of water under the bridge, except as its flow was affected by the presence of the piles and bents. It necessarily follows, then, that plaintiff never had any right which was hostile to the railroad company's rights to retain and maintain the piles and bents, and it does not appear that there was at any time until the commencement of this suit any claim of right to have the bents or piles removed.

(4) It appears that the diverting of the waters, the right to the continuance of which was gained by prescription, if at all, did not begin at the point where the waters went upon the defendant's right-of-way and under the bridge, but that the diversion began some do with diverting the waters. The east and west ditch, the railroad company at no time had anything to do with diverting the waters. The record discloses that if the small levee, built about the time the bridge was built, had not been increased from time to time great quantities of water would have at times continued to flow over plaintiff's land and never would have arrived for passage under the bridge, and it seems clear from the record that without additional height being added to the levees the debris, drift-wood, etc., would probably not have reached the bridge at all, but would have gone off over plaintiff's land.

There is nothing in the record whatever to show that the levee had been there for twenty years or more. It also appears that plaintiff himself contributed to injury by placing across the water-way an insecure bridge, which was carried down by the water, lodged against the bridge, and formed one of the main obstructions causing the overflow. Other property owners placed rail and other fences in the stream that were doubtless carried down to the bridge by high water.

The judgment is reversed and the cause remanded for proceedings in harmony with this opinion.

BETTER DAYS COMING SAYS A. A. CURRY.

A. A. Curry, one of the foremost of Morgan county farmers, is firmly of the belief that the crisis has been passed in the world of agriculture and live stock and that better days are coming steadily. Mr. Curry said yesterday that at the present price for hogs that a feeder can secure a very fair return for his corn, and there are indications of still higher pork prices. Since the war time there has seemingly been a smaller consumption of beef and a larger use of pork, with the result of a wider spread than heretofore in the price for the two kinds of livestock.

In talking about grain, Mr. Curry expressed the belief that in the course of weeks, or at least a very few months, that corn will reach the 50 cent price and he also sees prospect of some advance for wheat because of the extensive shipments that have been made abroad and the fact of heavy home consumption.

There is no radical optimism in this farmer and landowner's view but he looks for a steady, rational improvement and gives his reasons for these opinions.

TO ALL PERSONS:—Take notice that the undersigned, will pay no debts contracted by other persons than our individual selves.

HOMER HAXBY,
EDITH HAXBY.

THE WATER COLOR EXHIBIT.

Dear Editor:—

I have been asked to write a line regarding the very fine display of water color paintings on exhibition at the Old Strawn Mansion—now the permanent home of the Jacksonville Art Association.

Not being an artist, nor a connoisseur in art, and, not desiring to be classed with those who "rush in where angels fear to tread," I shall not attempt any appreciation of the collection, but, with your kind permission, will preach a little sermon, for there "Mac Gregor is on his native heath."

After an absence from Jacksonville of more than three years, on returning I was impressed with the wholesome harmony of the social atmosphere. The slogan of the Mayor, "All for the good of Jacksonville" was being responded to by the people unitedly, and a government of, by and for the people was being administered without taint of class, clique or clan.

I noticed, too, a quickened community conscience, recognizing the demands of social service for united interest and assistance in all humanitarian work. Also the fine spirit of altruism, which had entered into the conduct of our state institutions, was most noticeable. The wholly adequate plant of the Anti-Tuberculosis Sanitarium was greatly to our credit. Indeed the work of the few philanthropic souls who bore the burden in former days was now shared by the many. The atmosphere of mutual interest pervaded the entire city.

Educationally the change was still more noticeable. Not only had two colleges, one of whom we have always been justly proud—grown in numbers and in station, but our public schools had become the pride and appreciation of all in common, while in consequence the morale of our schools was enhanced a hundred fold. The change in system from ward to general control had worked wonders. The petty strifes and jealousies, so destructive to the right school spirit had entirely disappeared, and concord prevailed throughout the whole body of teachers and taught.

So, too, the old Chamber of Commerce with its limited functions has been supplanted by the new and broader chamber embracing all interest pertaining to public welfare. Conjointly the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs are wielding wide influence in emphasizing the one word "service."

Yes, Mr. Editor, on returning to find my permanent home, I found a new spirit animating the city we love. No longer the cry "Every man for himself," but "All for the good of Jacksonville."

Now for the sermon (which shall be short): Concordant with all these activities which make for the common good, let us pledge ourselves to support most loyally those enterprises which awaken and develop that spirit which alone gives character and quality to a person or place. Let us savor our city with "attic salt."

Not many decades ago we were called "The Athens of the West," not because of our intellectual attainments chiefly, but rather for the flavor of the personality here developed, the esthetic spirit permeating the whole social fabric till giving its distinction of quality of our city. For this course, I would most zealously commend the exhibition at the Art Home, and at the same time due acknowledgement to the Art Association for their praiseworthy efforts to preserve the best traditions of the past, that Jacksonville may continue to bear the hall-mark of quality.

Roswell O. Post.

BUSINESS BUILDING IN FRANKLIN BURNS

Store Building Owned by Frank Miller Destroyed by Fire Early Friday Morning—Was Occupied by Breyer Clothing Store.

Flames completely destroyed the brick building owned by Frank Miller on Main street in Franklin, at about 3:30 o'clock Friday morning. The building was occupied by Louis Breyer's clothing store and the stock and fixtures were so badly damaged by the fire that the loss will be large.

The fire was discovered by Porter Armstrong, who was returning from Jacksonville at the hour indicated. He gave the alarm but the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the building or its contents. The chemical engine failed to work and the fire fighters had to resort to the use of water.

For a time it was feared that the flames would spread to the nearby buildings, but after a hard struggle the firemen were able to prevent this. However, there was considerable damage to the building occupied by Beer-up's barber shop and also to the roof of the Schaaf building.

The building owned by Mr. Miller was one of the best mercantile buildings in Franklin. It was erected eight years ago and had a modern plate glass front.

Mr. Miller stated yesterday that he carried only a small amount of insurance and estimated that his loss would run considerably above the $3,000 mark. The origin of the fire is not known, but the flames evidently started in the rear of the building.

Mr. Breyerman who conducted the clothing store was in Springfield at the time of the fire and it is not known just what amount of insurance he carried. However, his loss will probably be considerable.

DANGER IN HEAVY FEEDING OF STOCK

Is Likely to Give Horses Azaturia—Farmers Should Be Careful of This Practice.

Due to the large number of stock sales held in January and February, and to the low price of feed compared with that of the last two or three years, there is a marked tendency among the farmers to feed their stock heavily. This applies especially to horses. They are fed heavily and not exercised much, in order to get them fat and sleek for sale. This practice is very apt to bring on azaturia, a disease which overfed, under exercised horses can easily contract.

If a horse is taken out and exercised after several days of heavy feeding and rest, azaturia may set in. The first symptoms are easily recognized. After the exercising the horse will be lame in either or both hind legs, and will break out with a profuse sweat. Heavy and laborious breathing will be apparent also. When the horse is brought in this condition, it is best not to try to move the animal until proper assistance has been obtained.

This mistake in the care of stock is a common one and is the cause of a large amount of loss to stock raisers.

WOODSON CHURCH IN PRE-EASTER CAMPAIGN

Christian Church Enters Pre-Easter Evangelistic Campaign—Other News From Woodson.

WOODSON, Jan. 20.—The Woodson Christian church has begun a pre-Easter evangelistic campaign which will continue until April 16. This is part of a movement which the denomination has inaugurated which it is hoped will result in the securing of 100,000 additions to the church between now and Easter. The quota of the local church is 20 and it is believed this goal will be reached.

Sunday, Jan. 29, will be known as "whole family day" in the Christian church, and Sunday school and it is hoped that the attendance on that day will be a record breaker. The last Sunday in February will be "Neighbors' day" and members will be expected to invite their neighbors to attend church on that occasion.

A chicken pie dinner is to be served at the home of Roy and Mrs. A. E. Powell on Thursday, Jan. 26.

In a recent issue of the Journal it was stated that the Woman's club had already paid $80 of a $100 pledge toward the Morgan county tuberculosis sanatorium. This was in error, as the club members have paid to date $60 toward this pledge. Plans are now in the making for the raising of the additional sum.

SHILOH LADIES AID IN OPEN MEETING

Annual Affair Held Thursday Evening at Home of Mrs. J. R. Black.

The annual open meeting of the Shiloh Ladies Aid society was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Black, with about 65 members and guests in attendance. An excellent supper was served, after which the following program was carried out:

Instrumental duet—Misses Mabel and Blanche Phillips.
Solo—Mrs. Arch Bridgman.
Reading, "The One-Legged Goose"—Miss Alma Lindsay.
Vocal duet, "Larboard Watch"—Misses Mabel and Blanche Phillips.
Reading, "When Sockery Set the Old Blue Hen"—Miss Evalene Hull.

Violin solo—Miss Suzanne Rinehart.

Reading, "When Jimmie Goes to Bed"—Miss Ethel E. Gaines.
A quartet composed of J. R. Black, F. S. Dodsworth, Carl Bourn and Roy Black sang "Garden of God." Brief remarks were made by the pastor, Rev. P. J. Rinehart, after which the company joined in singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and the benediction was pronounced by the pastor.

The next meeting of the society will be on February 16 at the home of Mrs. Phillips, with Misses Mabel and Blanche Phillips as hostesses.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEEDS GIVEN AT CONFERENCE

Well Attended Meeting Held at Northminster Church, Friday With Earnest Workers Present.

The annual meeting of the Morgan county Sunday school council was held Friday noon at Northminster church, Jacksonville.

The Council convened at the noon hour and was served with a savory dinner by the ladies of the church. After the dinner hour the Council was called into a business session and a program was carried out.

The invocation was by Rev. Mr. Wallace after which an address was given by Clarence L. DePew, business superintendent of the State Sunday School Association.

The Bible study and devotion was led by Rev. T. H. Tull and this was followed by a song service led by Rev. Mr. Wallace. The roll call was made by precincts. The following precincts were represented: Alexander 6 delegates; Chapin, 2; Concord, 5; Franklin, 2; Litterberry, 3; Lynville, 4; Murrayville, 1; Sinclair, 2; Waverly, 4; Woodson, 4; Meredossia, 0; Jacksonville, 18.

The toll showed there were ten pastors present and twelve Sunday school superintendents, four precinct officers and ten county officers. In all the attendance was fifty delegates.

Addresses were made by a number of persons. J. W. Weber of the Illinois Woman's College, spoke on, "Religious Education," and Rev. Mr. Armstrong of Philadelphia, representing the Sunday schools of the Presbyterian denomination spoke on the subject of, "Teacher Training." Rev. Mr. Humphries made a talk along the lines of "Evangelism in the Sunday School."

The report of the secretary was heard and it was urged that more attention be given to the promotion of special teachers in the Sunday school work.

The conference then divided itself into two divisions. The superintendents and pastors forming one division and the predict and county officers another. The division of pastors and superintendents discussed the features of Sunday school administration while the county and precinct officers discussed how best to serve the Sunday school. The closing remarks were given by Rev. A. E. Powell of Woodson, and Rev. W. H. March of Jacksonville.

The spirit of the conference was how to meet the present needs of the Sunday school.

WANT MORE NAMES FOR FACTORY WORK

Number So Far Is Insufficient—Believed, However, There Is Ample Help Here.

After yesterday's announcement of the Rothschild factory, application for factory employment have greatly increased at the Chamber of Commerce. The number is still insufficient, however.

The Chamber of Commerce and interested business men feel certain that there is plenty of factory material in the city, even to the number of eight hundred girls, but until the names are down in black and white, this knowledge will be of no value to the city of Jacksonville. If the Chamber of Commerce can point to a long list of names that signify people willing to take factory employment, the biggest factor in securing new industries for the city will have been achieved.

It is hoped that enough names will be received within a day or so to warrant the reopening of negotiations with the Brown Shoe company. If there are not enough, the Chamber of Commerce will make a canvass of the city. There is no doubt in the minds of the business men that enough names can be secured in this manner.

SEVERAL CHANGES ARE NECESSARY

The coming of the Rothschild factory has necessitated several changes for other concerns. The building that the new concern will occupy, has been used by the Ogar Cigar company, and is owned by Fletcher Hopper and Harry Hoffman. The Ogar factory had a lease for a certain period of time, so Hopper and Hoffman have taken care of them by transferring them to the rooms above their book bindery on West Morgan street.

Part of the space have been used by Mrs. James Young, who conducted a hair dressing parlor, and she also had a lease. Mrs. Young has been moved to some rooms just above the Hopper shoe store, so everybody is now well equipped.

FUNERAL OF AGED WHITE HALL MAN

Remains of Late Lyman C. Wright Interred Wednesday Afternoon at M. E. Church—Resident of Community for 61 Years.

White Hall, Jan. 20.—Funeral services over the remains of Lyman C. Wright were held in the M. E. church at 2:30 p. m. today, the discourse being delivered by Rev. James O. Kirkpatrick, and the burial was in the White Hall cemetery. There was a large attendance in respect to the man whose residence in White Hall covered a period of sixty-four years. He was the oldest railroad construction foreman in this part of the country, having charge of a construction gang in building the C. & A. line from Manchester to White Hall in 1863, and in 1864 organized the first section at Murrayville, serving as foreman at White Hall for several years prior to engaging in hotel and other pursuits. He would have been 85 years of age on May 22 next.

Mr. Wright was born at the mouth of the Detroit river, eight miles from Fort Alden, Canada, May 2nd, 1837, his parents originating from the then eastern part of the United States. When he was six years of age he located with his father at Corona, Mich., where he grew to manhood, and there he and Carolina V. Pierce were married December 7th, 1856. She was a daughter of the late Israel Pierce, who came to White Hall in the spring of 1857. A year later Mr. and Mrs. Wright also came to White Hall.

Mr. Wright had experience in railroad construction work in Canada that was enlisted when the Tonika line of the C. & A. had reached Manchester from Petersburg, and he assisted in bringing the line on to White Hall, which was the terminus for five years. Stage lines were operated between White Hall and Alton during that time. Petersburg was the northern terminus.

Retiring from the C. & A. track service in 1869, Mr. Wright conducted for two years a boarding house for the accommodation of the gangs that were engaged in constructing the Rockford road thru White Hall, now the Burlington. He was then engaged in the dray and transfer business for a long period of years. He bought a home at the corner of Railroad and Bridgeport streets on closing his boarding house in 1871, and it was in this home that his death came peacefully, following 35 hours of unconsciousness.

Mrs. Wright died on March 4, 1915, and the four children survive as follows: E. C. Wright, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. W. A. Winn, Mrs. James Bishop, and Mrs. Ernest Sullivan, all of White Hall, the latter residing with her father.

Mr. Wright had been a Mason since 1864 and a Methodist since 1860. He was a man of staunch morality. He once stated that he had paid taxes for fifty-eight years, and had never received to exceed ten dollars from any public fund.

COOKING SCHOOL THREE DAYS NEXT WEEK

Expert in Home Economics Will Give Demonstrations in Cookery Under Auspices of The Courier.

Under the auspices of The Jacksonville Courier a free cooking school will be given four days the coming week, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, in the northeast room of the Chamber of Commerce headquarters. Miss Elsie Hinkley, a graduate of Lewis Institute in home economics and a representative of the Corn Products Co., will be in charge of the school. Miss Hinkley for seven years was associated with work of home economics in Indiana high schools and for some time past has been in her present work, conducting these schools of cooking in a large number of cities.

The lectures are absolutely free and it is very certain that women of Jacksonville and vicinity who have special interest in home economics will find it worth while to attend the classes during the

PRICE OF WHEAT TAKES SETBACK

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Snowfalls in Kansas and Oklahoma brought about something of a setback in wheat prices today after an early advance. The close was easy at 3 1/2 to 4c net decline, with May $1.14 to $1.14 1/2 and July $1.01 1/2 to $1.01 1/2. Corn lost 1/4 to 3/8c to 1 1/2c and oats 1/4 to 3/8c. In provisions the outcome varied from 2 1/2c to 4c advance. At first the wheat market was influenced chiefly by cold weather advices and by assertions that winter crop was without adequate covering. Besides prospective shortage of domestic supplies together with talk of large quantities of breadstuffs that Europe must obtain during the next few months continued to be a factor. On the other hand rural offerings in the southwest were said to have increased owing to an advance in prices bid to producers.
Then too Liverpool reports told of greater pressure to sell new crop wheat from Argentina. It was under these circumstances that word of snow falling in sections where most needed by the domestic winter crop belt gave a decisive advantage to the bears. Some of the weaker longs were letting go of wheat on local basis, the session came to an end.
Enlarged country sales of corn to arrive here had a bearish effect both on corn and oats. Export business in corn was only fair mainly with Denmark.
Provisions averaged higher with hogs and on account of eastern buying of lard.

GOOD ROADS BOOSTER MEETING PLANNED

Big Program at Chamber of Commerce Headquarters Tuesday Night — Senator R. Meents and Col. Miller Will Speak.

A big meeting in the interest of the good roads movement has been planned by the Chamber of Commerce for next Tuesday evening. Senator R. Meents, who is actively identified with good roads legislation, is coming to make an address, as is also Col. C. R. Miller, director of the state department of public works. All members of the Chamber of Commerce are earnestly invited to attend this meeting and special invitations are being issued to members of the Automotive Dealers' Association, Morgan County Good Roads Association, Mississippi Valley Highway and Ocean to Ocean Highway Associations and the Union of Automobiles in Morgan and adjoining counties.

In addition to the address there will be a social hour with music and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Self were up from Woodson yesterday doing shopping with local merchants.

DR. SMITH TALKED ABOUT GOLDEN RULE

Told Rotarians That This Must Prevail in Business Before Affairs of Capital and Labor are Settled.

Dr. Thomas Smith made the address at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club at the Pacific hotel Friday. "The Golden Rule as applied to business," was the theme of this inspirational address. H. A. Perrin talked extemporaneously and in a most interesting way of the relationship between the public school system and all classes of society.

Guests of the day were G. W. Robson, Joliet; W. D. Hardy, of the state department of finance; N. W. Rott, Springfield; Fred Johnson, Peoria, and Carson N. Metcalf, of Greenfield.

Secretary Koppell made announcement of the recent action of the directors in appointing a complaint committee which includes H. M. Capps, A. C. Metcalf and L. F. Randall. It is expected that any complaints or suggestions with reference to club operation will be made informally to this committee.

Dr. Smith talked particularly of the relationship between capital and labor and the present day necessity of bringing about better understanding through mutual concessions. He cited the opinions of prominent English leaders to show that any effort to break down labor unions is a mistaken plan. He suggested that there had been some unfortunate foreign leadership in the industrialism of the United States but said that basely the union movement is sound and solvent.

The speaker emphasized the thought that it is far better to practice the Golden Rule by 60 percent than to merely profess it by 100 percent. The record of the Nash Clothing Co., in Cincinnati, where the workers have a full partnership with the management was cited as proof that the application of the Golden Rule to business is an entirely practical thing. He quoted the statement that the application of divine law is the right method for miracle working.

Dr. Smith spoke in a most optimistic way of the present Jacksonville spirit, expressing the thought that petty jealousies and strife are giving way to co-operative action and the forward look. All he believes is necessary for genuine future growth is the development of earnest faith and a continuance of this co-operative spirit. It was a most eloquent plea for the spirit of "do as you would be done by," in business, and Rotarians gave the suggestions their undivided attention.

WORKERS APPLYING FOR FACTORY JOBS

Announcement of Mr. Renner of Work Soon to Begin For Rothchild Factory Brings Applications.

The definite announcement that the Rothchild Clothing Co. factory is to be established here under the management of Albert Renner is bringing in a satisfactory list of applicants for positions. For a number of days the Chamber of Commerce has been running an advertisement urging persons willing to work in the factory to send their names to the Chamber of Commerce headquarters. A number of men and women were enrolled but a substantial increase in the list of applicants came with the definite announcement from Mr. Renner. The Rothchild Co., now has orders to place and the work is to be inaugurated immediately in the plant of the Jacksonville Tailoring Company. The work will proceed there while betterments are being made in the Hopper & Hoffman building at the corner of West and North streets where the factory is to be established.

It is thought that not more than a month's time will be consumed in making the necessary changes and in installing the new machinery which has been purchased. Mr. Renner is receiving applications for positions, but prefers that applications be made thru the Chamber of Commerce.

CHURCH DIRECTORIES. Neatly framed directories showing the services of various Protestant churches of Jacksonville have been placed in a number of conspicuous places about the city. This work was done by the Ministerial Association with the thought of attracting the attention of visitors to the city.

CLUBS AND SOCIETY

Farewell Party for Mrs. Edmonds.

The meeting of the Friday social circle yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Keefe on West North street, was a farewell party for Mrs. George Edmonds who is soon to leave Jacksonville. Mr. Edmonds who has been the manager of the Kresge store here for several years, has been named assistant manager of the Kresge store in St. Joseph, Mo., and he and his family will go there to live. A very pleasant afternoon was spent and Mrs. Edmonds was presented with a beautiful plant. Mrs. John Pride and Mrs. J. A. Pashall were guests of the club at this meeting. The hostess served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

South Side Circle Met Friday With Mrs. Pletcher.

The South Side Circle met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. E. L. Pletcher as hostess, at her home on West College avenue. The President, Mrs. Thomas Buckthorpe presided at the short business session which preceded the program. Mrs. W. T. Reaugh read a very interesting paper on "Panama," telling of the life in this Central American country. Miss Beulah Tull then sang two delightful songs, "Miss Mary," and "The Slumber Boat." Miss Adele Shelah of the High school, gave two readings which were greatly enjoyed.

There were a large number of members present, and several guests had been invited and the meeting proved to be one of unusual interest. A pleasant social hour came at the end of the afternoon and the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

Sorosis at Cole Home.

Mrs. C. E. Cole entertained the members of Sorosis at her home on West College avenue yesterday afternoon. Ventures in American Realism" was the subject of a paper read by Mrs. Frank J. Heim who gave a discussion of the life and work of Theodore Dreiser. Miss Dummer presided over yesterday's meeting in the absence of Mrs. T. P. Carter the president. Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour at the close of the afternoon.

Club Meets at Pilgrim Memorial.

The Professional Woman's club met last evening at the Pilgrim Memorial building of the Congregational church. Mrs. Lena Williams and Miss Part of the Federal Vocational Training Board at the State Hospital, were the hostesses for the evening. Miss Jacobina Riecke the president, had charge of a brief business session. The hours were given to sewing games and different entertainment and during the evening the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

S. S. Class Had Waffle Supper.

Member of the Sunday school class of the Congregational church taught by Miss Mary Collins enjoyed a waffle supper at the Pilgrim Memorial Friday evening. Each member was privileged to invite a guest and the result was that a large number of young people gathered at the church for this occasion. Ice cream and other good things to eat were served in addition to waffles and the affair was a pleasant one for all.

Business Girls Club Met.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Business Girls club was held at the Congregational church Friday evening. A number of business matters were given attention and then came a social time and the serving of refreshments. Miss Jacobina Riecke is president of this organization and Miss Lucy Catlin the secretary. The young women who are members of this club find the meetings very much worth while.

Murayville Club Met Thursday Night.

The Domestic Science club of Murayville held a well attended and very delightful social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hary G. Strang Thursday evening for its members husbands and a number of guests. The hostesses were Mrs. J. H. Spencer, Mrs. L. C. Collins, Mrs. Arthur Seymour, Mrs. J. T. Warcup, and Mrs. H. G. Strang. A novelty event of the evening was that upon the arrival of the guests a fictitious name was placed on each one they were then conducted to a Japanese tea garden where tea was served by Mrs. L. C. Collins who was dressed in a dainty Japanese costume they then went to the Indian Wigwam where Mrs. Arthur Seymour in a clever Indian costume presented each one with a tally card. Progressive domino was a feature of the evening, at the end of the game it was found that five couples tied for the high honor. Music on the Victrola added much to the pleasure of the evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Goldway, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wright, Miss Lillian B. Gordon. At a late hour the hostesses served an elegant two course luncheon, the guests being served on small tables, which were arranged in the spacious rooms. The first course consisted of cream chicken parties, spiced apples, and whipping cream on a bed of crisp lettuce, and hot rolls. The second course consisted of marshmallow Bavarian cream, lady fingers and coffee. It is needless to say the evening was a pleasant one and the guests all departed thanking the hostess for the pleasant evening enjoyed.

ALEXANDER. Mr. and Mrs. Noel Wiley and daughter, Minnie and Miss Anna Colwell represented the Alexander M. E. church at the Sunday school conference in Jacksonville Friday.

Mrs. Martha Miller and Mrs. Robert Saylor were among those who visited the county seat Friday.

William and John Colwell were business visitors in Jacksonville Friday.

Clarence Trent and Dee Ruble were Friday visitors in Jacksonville.

WITH THE SICK Mrs. A. D. Fernandes is ill with pneumonia at her home on King street.

W. L. Shibe who has been ill at his home for the past week has sufficiently recovered to be able to return to his place of business today.
